DR. BAUGHMAN TO HEAD DRIVE FOR LIBRARY

Dr. Harry F. Baughman, former president of the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary, was introduced Thursday evening as the chairman of a capital funds drive to be launched this spring by the Adams County Public Library.

That announcement came at the 16th annual meeting of the library, a dinner session at the Hotel Gettysburg with about 80 persons attending, making it one of the largest attended annual meetings in the history of the library.

At a brief business session, three directors were re-elected for three-year terms and Donald E. Horst, Biglerville, was elected as a new member of the board. A revision of the original constitution and bylaws of the library also was approved.

Dr. Charles H. Glatfelter, dean of Gettysburg College, was the toastmaster. Ralph Blasingame Jr., Pennsylvania State librarian, was one of the speakers.

NEW SERVICE

Attorney H. Thomas Pyle, president of the library board, presided at the business session.

The rural library service demonstration project, financed largely by federal funds and dependent upon increased local support, was described by Joseph T. Dobransky, new extension coordinator for the library, who said the new project will mean "books for everyone" will be made available throughout the county.

He pointed out the addition of a second bookmobile and thousands of books with an expanded staff will take library service to every community in the county, starting not later than March 1. The library's other bookmobile will continue its regular service to the schools of the county, he added.

Mrs. Mary S. Wilson, librarian, said in her annual report, book purchases for the library in the last year trebled that for any previous year and with an enlarged staff the library has been able to step up the number of hours the main library is open to the public.

NEED MORE SPACE

Demands for reference books at the library has "exploded," she said, making the pinch for more space more acute. She said

WILL OBSERVE CHAIR OF UNITY OCTAVE HERE

Rev. Fr. James Foley, of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church, Brooklyn, will conduct the Chair of Unity Octave in St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church from Sunday to January 27. Rev. Fr. Joseph P. Kealy, pastor of the local church, said today. Services Sunday will begin at 7 p.m. The services are being held "to offer prayers for God for the unity of all men," Fr. Kealy said.

The Chair of Unity Octave was originally conceived by an Episcopal clergyman and inaugurated in an Episcopal chapel. The founder was Rev. Lewis T. Wattson, later known as Rev. Fr. Paul James Francis of the Society of the Atonement. He was born on the eastern shore of Maryland, a son of an Episcopal clergyman. After graduating from college he attended the General Theological Seminary in New York City and took orders in 1885. Six months later he became pastor of St. John's Church, Kingston, N. Y.

ORDAINED PRIEST

Early in life he thought of founding a religious order and after serving the ministry for several years he resigned his pastorate and on October 7, 1898, founded the Society of the Atonement. The motherhouse is Graymoor, N. Y. He continued his efforts to establish a special day of prayer and when a Rev. Dr. Spencer Jones, of London, suggested one day a year be set aside for the prayer of unity Rev. Fr. Francis elaborated on the idea and eventually appealed to Pope Pius X to establish the Chair of Unity Octave in the Catholic Church which he did on December 27, 1909. Shortly thereafter Rev. Fr. Francis was ordained in the Catholic priesthood by Archbishop Farley of New York. The service was later raised from a form of private devotion and made a part of the approved prayers of the church. The founder died in 1940.

Tshombe Will Help Pave Way For Peaceful Entry Of U.N. Forces In Katanga

By DENNIS NEEDLE
ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga, the Congo (AP)—Katanga President Moise Tshombe is scheduled to return to Kolwezi Saturday to try to prevent destruction of the industrial installations there and pave the way for peaceful entry of U.N. forces by Monday.

The percurial Katanga president, who for 30 months has blocked plans to reunify the Congo, promised to cooperate with the U.N. Thursday night after a four-hour talk with U.N. officials here.

Congo Premier Cyrille Adoula said Tshombe was getting his last chance to bring his breakaway province back into the fold.

"We know the man," Adoula said in a speech at Leopoldville. "It is not the first time that Tshombe has declared himself ready to renounce his ambitions to found an independent state."

Seek Receiver To Break Philly Transit Strike

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The city today asked Common Pleas Court to appoint a receiver to take over the strike-bound Philadelphia Transportation Company and restore it to operation.

In filing the equity action, Deputy City Solicitor James F. Stern told the court the city seeks to protect its $200 million investment in the transit firm. The city owns the Broad Street Subway, Market-Frankford Subway-Elevated train service and 270 new stainless steel cars. It leases the properties to the PTC.

The Transportation Workers Union struck the PTC at 12:01 a.m. Tuesday closing down major mass public transportation in this city of two million people. The major issues are wages and a layoff clause.

Mayor James H. J. Tate and City Councilmen Thomas McIntosh and George Schwartz filed the suit, acting in the capacity of PTC directors.

ADDRESSES B-P CLUB'S ANNUAL DINNER HERE

Harold Webber, sales representative of the Metropolitan Edison Co., spoke at the dinner Thursday evening of the Business and Professional Women's Club held at the YWCA with 40 members and guests present. He was introduced by Miss L. Myrtle Stauffer, a cashier in the local office, as a graduate engineer who works with individual plants, makes suggestions for store renovations, etc., and is working in the department of electric heat. Speaking on the theme "Planning For Progress," Webber used colored charts and pictures to tell the story of their "nerve center," the Lambda Dispatch System, which regulates the distribution of electric power over an area extending from Ohio to the Atlantic Ocean. He said "the Metropolitan Edison Company, like most American free enterprises, had a modest beginning in a small building in Reading on March 18, 1883, six months after Thomas A. Edison put into operation the world's first power plant on Pearl St. in New York City.

"You can see from that early beginning that Reading and the other Pennsylvania cities such as York and Hanover that we serve were not slow in adopting the new-fangled electric light." He explained that the company now serves 14 counties.

POWER PLANTS

He said, "Today our investment in facilities exceeds $279,000,000 and we operate five power plants. We have more than 1,000 miles of transmission line and 341 substations. We serve more than a quarter million customers, of whom almost 227,000 are residential customers, 22,000 commercial and almost 3,000 are industrial

FATHER, SON GIVEN AWARD FOR 'TREE FARM'

Robert E. and Robert C. Eicholtz, father and son who operate a 900-acre woodland area on Biglerville R. D., were presented with a certificate from the American Tree Farm System Thursday night by State Secretary of Forests and Waters Maurice K. Goddard at the annual meeting of the Adams County Soil Conservation District at the courthouse.

Noting that the Eicholtz operation is now officially designated as a "tree farm" by the national organization, Dr. Goddard, in praising the Eicholtz men for their operation which includes the harvesting of only mature trees, planting of trees, operation of a sawmill, participation in conservation projects, permitting use of their facilities in training foresters and establishment of recreational programs by leasing cabins and hunting and fishing sites, said their tree farm is No. 762 in Pennsylvania. The designation came, he said, after investigation by committees from the American Tree Farm System.

District Secretary W. Clayton Jester reported 61 new cooperators signed with the conservation district bringing the total to 1,090 or 46 per cent of all of the 2,376 units in the county.

During the year, according to Jester's report, among the work completed was construction of 10 farm ponds, bringing to 327 the number at present in the county.

Adult Classes Hit Enrollment Peak

With 30 enrolled for the course on "The Battle of Gettysburg" taught by J. M. Sheads of the Gettysburg High School faculty, enrollment in the adult evening classes at the Gettysburg High School has soared to a record of 132.

Jack R. Corbin, director of the adult education program, said eight classes are underway. The first class meetings were held Monday evening for the second semester which will end in March. The classes average 19 each. A minimum of 10 was required to establish a class.

In addition to the six courses listed earlier as certain for the second semester, Corbin said a course in electrical theory intended specially for tradesmen, utility company employees and others who work with electricity, and a course in sewing have been added. Jack Cessna teaches the electricity course and Mrs. Mary Diehl is the sewing teacher.

The other courses being given in addition to that taught by Mr. Sheads include Spanish shorthand, music workshop, typing and oil painting.

ADAMS APPLES SPOIL ON DOCK DUE TO STRIKE

At least several hundred bushels of Adams County apples are among perishable fruits and vegetables spoiling on a dock in New York as the result of the four-week-old dockworkers' strike that has paralyzed American shipping.

Arthur E. Rice, president of the Rice Fruit Company, Biglerville, said his firm delivered 3,500 bushels of Golden Delicious and Stayman apples to the Swedish-American Lines dock in New York on December 19 for shipment to Finland on the S.S. Tidaholm. He said that apparently the line had over-booked cargo and a total of 15,000 bushels of U.S. apples were left standing on the dock for loading on a supplemental ship.

However, the strike was called December 21 and the second ship was not permitted to load.

The New York buyer informed the Rice Fruit Company that all attempts to save the shipment failed when strikers refused to permit the agent to cross the picket lines to remove the fruit to storage. They also refused to allow the agent to cover the fruit in an attempt to save it from total freeze loss.

Rice said that the loss will be taken by the steamship line or by the buyer. Local responsibility ended when the fruit was delivered at the dock.

Miss Grace Myers, neighborhood chairman, said she will announce plans for the window displays by troops during Girl Scout Week, March 10-16.

BENEFITS OF RECREATIONAL PLAN CITED

Pennsylvania's planned $70,000,000 "Project 70" on which the citizens of the state will probably vote this fall is designed not only to provide social and economic benefits of large recreation areas but principally to attract more industry to the state. Dr. Maurice K. Goddard, secretary of forests and waters, told the annual meeting of the Adams County Soil Conservation District Thursday evening in the courthouse.

After outlining the proposed establishment of numerous recreation areas for swimming, boating, camping, hunting, fishing, etc., Dr. Goddard said that the proposed financing of the project by a $70,000,000 bond issue passed the last session of the legislature. If it passes this year's session it will be put on the ballot at the general election in November.

SEES GOOD RETURN

The program will provide needed water and recreation. In providing recreation facilities it will bring millions of dollars each year into Pennsylvania, Dr. Goddard said.

But he added, "One of the most important reasons for the program is to help bring industry into Pennsylvania. There was a day when you built a plant and the people moved there and operated it. Now plants go where the key personnel want to live. If you don't believe the truth of that study the advertisements in the New York Times by which the big companies seek the electronics experts, the engineers, the scientists they need. That advertising costs $1,650 for a half page and most of the ads seeking these skilled men refer to the recreation and livability features of the area where the plant is located. In the last seven years more than 200 plants have located at Phoenix, Arizona, principally because of the recreational facilities available."

"In Adams county area our emphasis will be on improving Cal-

LOCAL DRIVER IS INJURED IN MD. ACCIDENT

Beril L. "Bud" Coleman, 25, of 240 Baltimore St., driving a tractor-trailer laden with nearly 20 tons of sand for McDermitt, Inc., Gettysburg R. D., suffered relatively minor injuries Thursday morning at 9 o'clock when a car cut in front of the truck in Owings Mills, Md., causing an accident that ended with the tractor-trailer in a creek.

Both Coleman and the driver of the car, Samuel J. Darrigo, 48, Lineboro, Md., were admitted as patients at Sinai Hospital, Baltimore. Coleman, according to Baltimore news reports, suffered a broken nose, cuts of the head, face and hands and a possible concussion. Darrigo suffered cuts of the head, face and hands.

According to Baltimore County Accident Investigation Officer William Scharf, Darrigo was driving south on the Reisterstown Rd. in Owings Mills when he attempted to make a left turn into a service station in the path of the northbound tractor-trailer. According to the officer, Coleman had no chance to avoid the accident.

SEEKS ACTION ON DOCK STRIKE

Congressman George A. Goodling, of the Adams, York, Cumberland District, sent the following letter to Secretary of Labor Willard W. Wirtz Thursday in an effort to ascertain what action has been taken by the Labor Department and the administration to end the longshoremen strike.

The letter to the secretary was written as the result of numerous protests the congressman has received from heads of industry in the 19th Congressional District which are seriously affected by the dock strike.

Goodling said that informal discussions have been held by members of the Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee as to action which is under consideration by that committee as soon as it is organized. Goodling, a member of the committee, said that to date organization of House committees has not been completed.

The letter to Secretary Wirtz follows: "Each day letters and telegrams reach this office protesting the lengthy and costly strikes in progress at this time.

"Irresponsible action is threatening our entire economy, including our national defense. The machinery of collective bargaining is threatened. The public welfare is completely ignored by certain leaders. Public patience is wearing extremely thin. The power in some has gone beyond the bounds of reason. This power, unchecked, can prove as disastrous for the country as the excess of management some decades ago.

"Repercussions are being felt in the 19th Congressional District of Pennsylvania. Layoffs are inevitable for lack of raw materials. "The time for action is 'now.' Those whom I represent want an answer. What assurance can I give them?

"My replies will be delayed pending word from you."

Clarifies Mail Delivery Issue

Postmaster Charles W. Pentz today clarified a statement regarding deliveries of drivers' license applications by explaining that the post office is not permitted to forward third class mail which carries an improper address. The explanation is the result of an error in Thursday's Times concerning the delivery of applications to persons who have failed to notify the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, Harrisburg, of a change in address, and thus have not received their applications for operator's license for 1963.

Webb, head of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, also said his agency's mounting budget requests should level off at about $6 billion in 1967 unless Russia springs some surprises.

RED CROSS SHIP OFF FOR CUBA WITH RANSOM

By JOE MCGOWAN JR.
ABOARD THE SHIRLEY LYKES EN ROUTE TO HAVANA (AP) — Sailing under the Red Cross flag, the ultramodern cargo liner Shirley Lykes today steamed toward Cuba with 7,000 tons of ransom supplies for Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

The ship is expected to dock in Havana at mid-afternoon.

A Pan American World Airways plane is expected to fly to the Cuban capital with 10,000 pounds of cargo and return with another load of Cuban-Americans. It is understood the plane will await the ships arrival before heading for Miami.

CARRIES 868 TONS

The Shirley Lykes sailed from Port Everglades Thursday night after loading 868 tons of supplies. This was added to cargo hatches bulging with 6,441 tons of food, drugs and medicine loaded at Baltimore.

The arrival of the freighter brings the value of the cargo delivered to Castro to about one-third of the $3 million promised him for release of the Bay of Pigs invaders. The freighter African Pilot delivered 3,500 tons of ransom goods to Cuba soon after Christmas. She returned to Florida with 922 relatives of liberated prisoners.

The Lykes is scheduled to sail for New Orleans after unloading. A question mark hung over the possibility that she would be permitted to take to the United States a new group of invader relatives, as refugees were hauled from Havana in the African Pilot's cargo decks.

Digging Holes Is A Legal Protest

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—The Bavaria State Supreme Court has ruled that digging holes in a public park is a legitimate form of protest.

The court canceled 50-mark fines ($12.50) levied against three men who were caught last year digging foxholes in Munich's downtown Maximilian Square. They said they were ridiculing a government pamphlet recommending ways to survive an atomic blast.

The courtsaid criticism can be expressed by other means than words and that the men were only exercising their right to express an opinion.

4-H CLUBS SELL COOKIES

The Adams County 4-H Clubs Thursday evening started a campaign to sell 500 cases of cookies to help raise funds for county youths selected to appear in national events.

Meeting at the Adams Electric Cooperative building, rear of N. Stratton St., Thursday evening 50 representatives from the various 4-H Clubs received supplies and instructions for the campaign.

The cookie sales program was decided upon in order to have funds available when county 4-H members are selected for national honors. Last year a large number of countians became state winners and participated in national events. Each time campaigns had to be held to raise the local funds necessary to send the delegates to the conventions. Because of the skill of several of the members, the county group is anticipating some will also be able to win their way into national competition again this year.

Elby Boring and Dale Bair, chairmen for the cookie campaign, presided at Thursday's meeting. They told the club representatives it is hoped 350 cases will be sold by January 26, the first report date.

adult loans of nonfiction books, largely reference, jumped 18 per cent last year.

The report of the nominating committee was presented by Donald B. Hudson, a member of the board. Re-elected board members are Mrs. Richard Schubart, who was in charge of arrangements for Thursday's dinner; Amos D. Meyers, York Springs, and Allen S. Stauffer, Biglerville.

The upturn in the financial status of the library was noted by Dr. Frank N. Hewetson, treasurer, in his annual report. He said the library paid off its mortgage last month and ended the year with a balance of $1,311 in its operating fund and $37,000 in reserve. The latter amount is earmarked for use in the rural library service demonstration project, he added.

NEED LOCAL SUPPORT

President Pyle, Dr. Hewetson and others emphasized the importance of steadily increasing local support for the library to qualify it for maximum state help.

Mrs. E. J. Killalea, president of the Friends of the Library, presented the annual report of that organization and presented to Mrs. Schubart for the library an 1858 map of Adams County and an 1864 edition of Dr. Michael Jacobs' book "The Rebel Invasion of Maryland and Pennsylvania and the Battle of Gettysburg."

In a brief talk Dr. Baughman paid tribute to the late Elsie Singmaster Lewars as a founder, director and former president of the county library and described the need for enlargement of the main library building on E. High St. "It must be expanded if the library is to continue to serve the county effectively and this undertaking will require the help of every friend of the library."

DEMAND INCREASES

Mr. Blasingame discussed "pressures and tensions" on libraries every where by reason of the great demand for library service for more people, increased participation in research and vastly increased publications. He predicted a successful capital funds drive here.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Dr. Robert W. Koons, pastor of Christ Lutheran Church. Introductions included State Senator D. Elmer Hawbaker and Assemblyman Harry D. Ridinger.

Principal changes involved in the revision of the constitution and bylaws make every adult resident of the county a member of the library organization and set at seven the number of directors required for a quorum at a board meeting. The figure had been five.

A board spokesman said it is the hope of the directors that those wishing to attend a school will choose the one most convenient to them because the school sites were placed in different parts of county to make them available to more persons.

The Rev. C. Reynolds Simmons, board president, presided Thursday evening. Luther Lady, dean; Roy Starnes, assistant dean; Wilmer Lady, Alonzo LaVenture and Mrs. Fred Neal also were present.

to swerve the vehicle slightly and it just missed the bridge, but broke through guard rails and went down a 12-foot embankment into the stream.

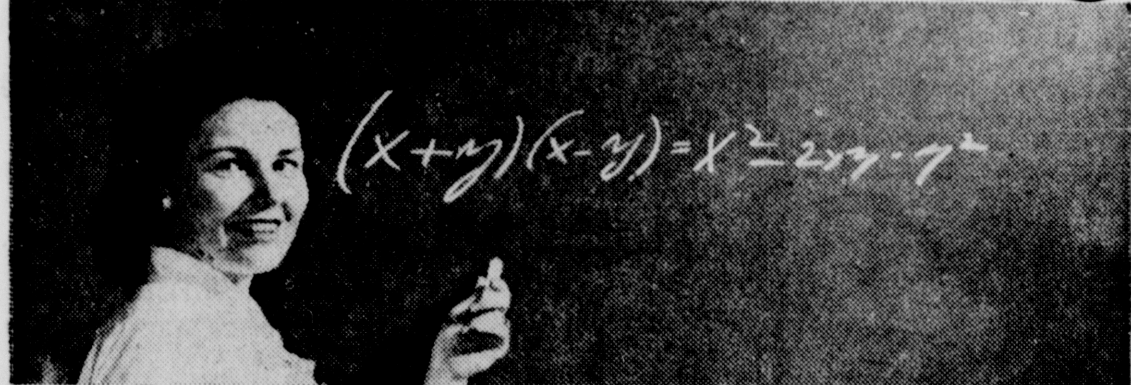

Leo McDermitt, Inc., said the tractor portion of the tractor-trailer was demolished, but only slight damage occurred to the dump-type trailer. When the vehicle came to rest the tractor part was in about two feet of water in the middle of the stream. The trailer was hanging with its back at the bridge.

According to the Baltimore Sun, Baltimore County police brought a charge of not granting the right of way against Darrigo and a charge of reckless driving against Coleman.

Dr. David Stoners Parents Of Twins: Dr. and Mrs. David C. Stoner, 409 York Street, announce the birth of twins this morning at the Warner hospital. The first, a five-pound, four-ounce girl, arrived at 1:49 o'clock and the second, a five-pound, two-ounce boy, was born at 2 o'clock. The Stoners now have five children. Doctor Stoner was recently discharged from the hospital after being seriously injured in an auto accident.

The Rev. and Mrs. T. Painter Hanson, Easton, Md., announce the birth of a son, T. Painter Jr., at the Easton Hospital on Friday. The Rev. Mr. Hanson is a son of Dr. and Mrs. Henry W. A. Hanson, college campus.

County Pays $2,834 To Keep Prisoners: Adams county has paid $2,834.45 to maintain 97 prisoners in the Dauphin county jail during the past six months. Warden D. W. Fahnestock revealed in a report to the Board of Prison Inspectors.

It was also revealed that the cost of feeding a prisoner in that jail was 45.8 cents a day last year compared to 44.4 a day in 1946.

AAUW Will Hear Of School Problems Here: Dr. Lloyd C. Keefe, superintendent of the Gettysburg public schools, will be the speaker and the public school teachers of the town will be specially invited guests for the January meeting of the local branch of the American Association of University Women.

Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the YWCA building. Superintendent Keefe's subject will be "Logical Educational Problems." A general invitation has been issued to the teachers of the town, both men and women, to attend the meeting. A social hour will follow in honor of the teacher-guests. There will be special music by Mrs. Victor Carlson.

Dr. Ray F. Sheely Signally Honored: Dr. Raymond F. Sheely, Baltimore street, has been signally honored by several outstanding medical associations and societies. The local physician has been elected an associate fellow in the American College of Chest Physicians and he has been notified of his election into the medical section of the American Trudeau Society and the American Heart Association.

Doctor Sheely, a native of Gettysburg and a graduate of Gettysburg college, has been practicing in Gettysburg for six years.

Brother Of Local Man Makes Sketch Of President's Wife: A charcoal sketch of Mrs. Harry S. Truman by Robert A. Hoke, staff artist of The Washington (D.C.) Star and brother of Swartz Hoke, linotype operator for The Gettysburg Times, is the most cherished Christmas gift Margaret Truman said she received. It was given her by her father, President Truman.

The portrait is one of a number of sketches made by Hoke of prominent Washington officials and their wives for publication in the Washington paper. The President was so impressed with the likeness of Mrs. Truman that he secured the original and presented it to his daughter as a Christmas gift.

Poinsettia May Be Kept Until Next Christmas: Of all Christmas flowers the poinsettia is the most cherished, but unfortunately its beauty under most conditions is rather short lived, writes Alfred Putz in the New York Herald Tribune. If all the good rules are followed, the plants should remain in a presentable condition until the end of January he says. Chilling them by exposure to less than 65 degrees is a frequent cause of their quick decline within a week or so after they have

I WILL
I will — make this day worth while.

I will drop the past, remembering it only as a valuable path through which I have walked into the now.

I will take up the work of this day as a personal pledge to do my best — with interest and enthusiasm. I will do the things I have failed to do before. I will attempt new things that I know now that I can do. I will go ahead.

I will play the game today with a warm heart and a cool head. I will smile when I feel like scowling. I will be patient when I feel tempted to scold. I will take personal command of myself.

I will be loyal to the concern for which I work. I will be faithful to all my trusts. I will master the smallest detail. I will master — not knock, I will do — not intend. I will get things done.

I will work because I like to. I will be fair and just because there is no other way — to win. I will do right because it is right. I will drink defeat, if it comes at times, as good medicine. I will sweat by courageous effort — determined to succeed at all time.

I will be careful of my time, considerate of my health, jealous of my honor. I will help make this day great for everyone with whom I come in contact. I will work for the people whom I serve with all my heart and with all my mind and with all my strength. For in the glory and success of my concern is hidden the glory and success of my own self.

THE MEANING OF LOSS
He tossed it on a rubbish heap.
Contented to forsake it;
A thing he didn't want to keep.
But not a soul would take it.

He put it under lock and key
Endeavoring to conceal it,
'Twas very dear to him and he Feared thieves would try to steal it.

Our richest joys we cannot keep.
We know they all must perish,
But things upon life's rubbish heap
We neither love nor cherish.

So for the sorrows all must share
The depths of love we measure,
The harder seems the loss to bear
The richer was the treasure.

If the temperature is allowed to drop to 60 degrees yellowing of the lower leaves will take place within a day. Everybody who has had a poinsettia knows what happens after that. The other leaves lose their bright green color in succession and drop off, leaving only the bright red bracts which hold on a little longer.

Quick and decided temperature changes, keeping too wet or too dry or depriving them of sunlight have the same effect. No matter how carefully tended afterward there is no way of undoing the harm.

Gabriel Hiester Award Won Again By Adams County: Adams county has won the Gabriel Hiester award again at the State Farm Show at Harrisburg. The prize, $35, is given each year to the county horticultural association making the best showing based on both the number of members of the organization exhibiting apples at the state farm show and on points given for awards won by the members in the various competitions.

Adams county growers won 46 awards in apple competition, including second place in the county exhibit. In addition to the winners from Adams county listed Tuesday the following also won cash prizes in the tray contests: Macoun variety, G.M.W. Orchard, first prize; Frederic E. Griest, Flora Dale, second; Double Red Delicious, Frederic E. Griest, second; Frederic E. Griest Jr., third; Red Rome, Eva M. Pape, Gettysburg, second. The county also won the Hiester award last year.

Acute Shortage Of Gas Here; Cut Supply; Situation Serious: According to the Gettysburg Gas Corporation, the continued cold weather has caused such a large increase in the use of natural gas that pipeline pressures are approaching a critically low point.

To secure the greatest possible amount of natural gas conservation, the gas company has asked housewives to postpone heavy laundry work until temperatures moderate.

"The natural gas which would be used to heat water for laundry tubs and washers is desperately needed to provide necessary warmth for homes, hospitals, and other institutions," declared a

SAY CARUSO LIKELY CHOICE FOR GSA POST

By FRED WALTERS

HARRISBURG (AP)—A 56-year-old Harrisburg resident associated with state Sen. M. Harvey Taylor, emerged today as the apparent Republican choice to take charge of the state's multi-million dollar construction agency, the General State Authority.

The top candidate for the job appeared to be A. J. Caruso, a native of Fayette County, who was executive director of the GSA from June 1, 1957, until the Democrats placed John J. Lynam in the $20,000-a-year post on July 21, 1961.

Caruso reportedly already had Taylor's endorsement.

House Speaker W. Stuart Helm said he also favored Caruso's election.

"The fellow has proved he is very able in the job," Helm said. There was no indication, however, when the 12-member board would meet to reorganize in line with the change of administration.

One missing item in the Republican plan to take over the GSA was Senate confirmation of Richard M. Hornbeck, Pittsburgh, as secretary of property and supplies.

Until he is confirmed and becomes eligible to take his place provided on the GSA board, Republicans will be one vote short of the seven they need for absolute control.

Senate Democrats withheld endorsement of Hornbeck last Tuesday when Gov. Scranton's cabinet appointments were sent to the senate for approval. Senate republicans have only 26 of the 34 votes needed for confirmation.

Scranton will head the new board automatically when it organizes, succeeding former Democratic Gov. David L. Lawrence. Scranton also has the right to fill one of the 12 seats with a personal appointment.

SEEM TO AGREE

Taylor, 66-year-old Senate president pro tempore from Harrisburg, also has the right to appoint one of the members. He was unavailable for comment either on Caruso's endorsement or his proposed board appointee.

Helm said he would name House Majority Leader Albert W. Johnson as his appointee on the board.

Scranton was believed willing to go along with Helm and Taylor in backing Caruso for the job.

RESUME TALKS ON PTC STRIKE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Negotiators trying to solve the city's four-day-old transit strike had several proposals to consider today as they headed back to the bargaining table.

Proposals came from mediators and city and state officials. All buses, trolleys and subway-elevated lines operated by the Philadelphia Transportation Co. have been idle since early Tuesday when 5,600 members of Transport Workers Union Local 234 walked out in a contract dispute.

Private autos, commuter rail lines and taxis have been used by an estimated 500,000 riders who daily use the transit company's facilities.

Among the proposals was one company representative.

The gas company also has asked schools and churches in the territory which it serves to shut off all use of natural gas except that needed to protect property.

Country Club To Build Pool: Announcement was made today that the Gettysburg Country Club will build a new swimming pool on its property, Lincolnway West, formerly the Katalysine mineral springs, and that it will be completed sometime in June. It will be of cement construction, regulation size, 82.6 by 30 feet. The committee in charge of the work includes John H. Hauser, chairman; John Teeter, Dr. Raymond Sheely and Attorney Donald McC. Swope. It was announced, following a meeting of the board of directors Thursday afternoon, that furnishings for the new clubhouse have been ordered and will be received in the early future. The 9-hole golf course is completed, construction of the dam is finished and the area filled with approximately two million gallons of water.

Membership in the club will be limited to 200. There are 135 members at the present time, the directors announced.

Wild Berries Fatal To 6-Year-Old Boy

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Roland Driver, 6, who was stricken and lost his sight after eating berries in a park near his home, died today.

The boy had not regained consciousness since he collapsed Tuesday, shortly after tasting the berries in Montgomery Memorial Park.

The boy and two companions has gone to the park hunting for snakes.

The park, which contains shrubs with the yellow berries, has been closed. It is in suburban Delaware County, near Roland's home.

Dr. Frederick Reider, of the Philadelphia medical examiner's office, said the berries came from a plant known as ground cherry. Doctors said the boy had symptoms typical of atropine poisoning — such as blindness, unconsciousness and difficulty in breathing.

Elizabethtown Dribblers Oppose Bullets In Twin Bill Here Saturday Night

With the midyear examinations in full progress, Gettysburg College's varsity athletic program has been considerably slashed for the next two weeks.

Bob Hulton's cagers, 7-2 on the season, will be out to run its victory streak to six in a row when it entertains Elizabethtown Saturday. The Bullets will then travel to New Brunswick, N.J., to tangle with Rutgers the following Saturday.

Elizabethtown, 8-2 and leader in the college division of the Middle Atlantic Conference on team offense with a 80.4 game average, will undoubtedly be a severe test for the Bullets.

HAVE VET SQUAD

Coach Don Smith has six lettermen on his squad including Dan Reitmeyer, Jim Schlichter, John Neely, Larry Evans, John Graham and Wally MacPherson. Reitmeyer 6-7 and Evans 6-3 provide the height for the speedy and sharp shooting Blue Jays.

At 6:45 the Bullet Frosh tangle with the Elizabethtown junior varsity.

Ted Koerner holds a one-point edge over Sophomore George Strouse in the Bullet scoring column. Koerner has hit for 139 tallies in nine games while Strouse is clipping along at a 17.3 average on 138 points in eight games. Strouse continues to pace the foul shooters with 32 of 40 tosses for 80 per cent. Roger Gaekler tops the rebounders with 75 for an 8.3 average.

GRAPPLERS UNBEATEN

Seven Bullets remain undefeated following the first three wrestling matches of the season. The grapplers, under first year coach "Sprig" Gardner, are 3-0 on the season. Pete McDowell and Jim Stouffer have rolled up the most points. Both wrestlers have recorded two pins and one decision. Haynes Kline and Frank Ursommaro have each registered one pin and two decisions.

Phil Yost, 2-0 in two matches; Brian Schechterle and Doug Wight, both 1-0 in their lone outings, round out the undefeated grapplers.

Gettysburg will swing into the toughest part of its schedule on Saturday, January 26, when it tangles with Lycoming in Gettysburg.

Despite dropping its first three meets of the year, the Bullet swimming team has come up with better individual times than ever before. The varsity tankmen have lowered seven school marks, but the opposition has not only been equalling the performances but bettering it.

Sophomore Pete Wilson heads the point producers with two firsts, two seconds, and has been on two winning relay teams. Scott Ashman, diver, and Bill Lorentz, breast stroker, have each come up with a pair of first place finishes while Rudy Scoyer, diver is also among the double winners.

The Bullets will attempt to snap their three-meet losing streak when they splash against Franklin and Marshall in Lancaster on February 6.

White Sox Players To Report Feb. 20

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago White Sox will open spring training earlier than usual at Sarasota, Fla., with the battery-men reporting Feb. 20 and the rest of the 52-man squad swarming in four days later.

In past years, Manager Al Lopez always has had the entire squad check in at the same time. "Our slow start last season prompted the change in reporting," said General Manager Ed Short.

BOROS LEADS IN 1ST ROUND AT PEBBLE BEACH

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Former U.S. Open champion Julius Boros defended a two-stroke lead going into the second round of Big Crosby's national Pro-Amateur golf tourney today while a batch of "name" stars struggled to shoot themselves in to contention.

Tournament favorites like the great Arnold Palmer and South Africa's determined little Gary Player ran into quick trouble and found themselves trailing the tournament-wise 42-year-old, Mid-Pines, N.C., veteran who came in with a 6-under-par 66 to set the pace.

BIRDIES IN 10

Seven birdies in the last 10 holes did the trick for Boros over rolling Monterey Peninsula Country Club, which some rate as slightly less difficult than Pebble Beach and Cypress Point—the other two courses used in this 22nd playing of Bing's show.

The weather was clear and slightly breezy for the opening round.

Bunched in second place with 68s behind Boros were long-hitting Paul Harney, George Bayer and Dave Hill.

A stroke behind at 69 came ex-Marine Phil Rodgers and Gene Bone.

Palmer shot 70 and Player 73 at Cypress Point.

Big Jack Nicklaus, the current U.S. Open champion, also was 3 under-par at one time, but frittered most of it away to finish with a 71.

Team Fails To Support Scorers

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Bob Johnson and Fred Gillis, a pair of freshmen basketball players at Fitchburg (Mass.) State, form the best two-man scoring punch in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics, but their team has won only five of 11 games.

Johnson was second in NAIA scoring Thursday with a 38.3 average and Gillis fourth at 28.9. Willie Shaw of Lane (Tenn.) College still leads with 42.2.

Gorham Maine State leads NAIA team scoring with its torrid 99.9 average, followed by Grambling (La.) at 97.4.

BERRA WILL BE PLAYING COACH WITH YANKEES

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Yogi Berra, who has led everyone to believe he reads nothing weightier than the Katzenjammer Kids, has canceled his comic book subscription and accepted membership on the New York Yankees' board of strategy.

Mr. Lawrence Berra, a Yankee since 1946, was officially given his new assignment Thursday when General Manager Roy Hamer announced that the likable catcher-outfielder will be playing coach with the world champions during the 1963 season.

"Yogi will coach at first base when he isn't playing," Hamer said, "but I want to emphasize that he is still a player. I think he can play about 75 games next season."

Berra, who will be 38 in May, hit .224 in 86 games during the 1962 baseball season, has a lifetime batting mark of .284 and 350 homers—a record 305 as a catcher. The guess was Yogi's 1963 contract called for a salary in the neighborhood of $45,000.

Two other sluggers signed their contracts Thursday, Hank Aaron—45 homers and 128 runs batted in—with Milwaukee, and Leon Wagner—37 homers and 107 RBI—with the Los Angeles Angels.

TWO CHAMPS MAY REPEAT

By DAVE LEHERR

HARRISBURG (AP)—Uniontown and Darby may carve a new notch in the PIAA high school basketball record book this year.

Never before have the same two teams won the PIAA Class A and B basketball championships two years in a row.

But Uniontown and Darby look like good bets.

Uniontown captured its first Class A crown in 37 years last year while Darby was winning its first B title.

Reports this year indicate both teams are even better, averaging 70 or more points a game while holding the opposition to less than 50.

Uniontown, coached by Abe Everhardt Jr. is 11-0 for the season and has put together a string of 25 straight victories. Darby's unbeaten stretch is even more enviable—35 straight, including a 20-0 season last year and 10 victories so far this year.

VETERAN PROS BREAKING PAR

PORT ST. LUCIE, Fla. (AP)—

Veteran golf pros ranging to the 60s in age are on a par-busting spree that seems like old times in the $25,000 PGA National Golf Club Championships.

John Barnum, over 50 but still big, tough competitor, led the parade with an 8-under-par 64 over the 6,547-yard Sinners course at Port St. Lucie Country Club.

Jack Petrone of Westchester County, N.Y., playing in the 55-59 group, shot a fine 4-under-par 68, while two others in his group—Toney Penna of Cincinnati and Charles Sheppard of Pittsfield, Mass., fired 69s.

Even in the 60-64 division, there were par-busters led by Hal Sanderson of Summit, N.J., who was in with a 69.

A grand total of 518 club pros from all over the nation are competing in seven age divisions in the most heavily populated of all PGA tournaments.

Canadiens Creeping Up In Hockey Loop

The streaking Montreal Canadiens are beginning to give the National Hockey League standings a more familiar appearance. The Canadiens, shooting for a sixth straight regular season title in the NHL, crept to within one point of leading Chicago with a 6-4 comeback victory over Toronto Thursday night. Detroit held off Boston 5-3 in the other game scheduled.

The Montreal victory vaulted it past Toronto, now in third place, and gave the Canadiens a one-point edge over the Maple Leafs. Detroit, in fourth place, is only two points back of Toronto and four behind Chicago.

BULLETS RANK HIGH

The Gettysburg College basketball team now ranks fifth nationally among the major college teams on defense in permitting an average of 54.1 points per game. The Bullets also rank 12th in free throw percentage with 128 conversions in 174 tries for a .736 record.

Argentina, shaped like a triangle, is about 900 miles wide in the north, 150 miles wide in the south and 2,300 miles long.

Northern Faces GHS Here Tonight As Blue Mountain First Half Race Finishes

First-half play in the Blue Mountain Basketball League ends tonight and included among the games is the clash here between the Northern Polar Bears of Dillsburg and the Gettysburg High Warriors.

Northern, with a 4-4 record, has been a troublesome league team and forced unbeaten Big Spring into overtime before losing 46-44 Tuesday evening.

Don Harlacher, 5-11 Senior, is one of the reasons the Polar Bears are respected. He is the current league scoring leader.

Gettysburg has assured itself of no worse than a third-place finish in the first half. The Warriors will likely have their hands

TROIKA PLAN MAY SOLVE AAU NCAA DISPUTE

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—A troika—a coalition representing unattached, undergraduate and armed service athletes—may prove the formula for settling the long dispute between the AAU and NCAA over League game.

This was the prevailing opinion of knowledgeable men on both sides of the fence today as Gen. Douglas MacArthur opened arbitration talks aimed at ending dispute which is threatening this country's chances in the 1964 Olympic Games.

The Amateur Athletic Union currently is the governing body in most sports on the Olympic agenda, having the official recognition of the various international federations, but the powerful college group is seeking a stronger voice in these affairs.

TRADING BARBS

The colleges, through the National Collegiate Athletic Association, have set up rival federations in track and field, basketball and gymnastics and are seeking international recognition.

This was the stalemate General MacArthur, the arbitrator chosen by President Kennedy, faced when he sat down with four representatives from each of the rival factions.

Although both sides have been trading sharp and bitter barbs during the last few days, hope of a settlement rose with unofficial presentation of the "troika plan"—believed the only possible solution.

WOULD WORK TOGETHER

Under this plan, the AAU would govern all events involving unattached or "open" athletes, the colleges would control those of an undergraduate level (scholastic and collegiate) and the armed forces would run those strictly concerning men in uniform.

The three groups would work together—as a coalition—on meets leading to the Olympic level in which athletes of two or three of the categories are involved.

The AAU would continue as the sanctioning agent for the Pan American Games and Olympics.

NEW RACE LAW TO AID FAIRS

YORK, Pa. (AP)—A member of the board of stewards of the Central Fair Harness Racing Circuit says Pennsylvania's new pari-mutuel law will bolster the operating budgets of fairs.

Maynard Mordan, racing secretary of the Bloomsburg fair, made the prediction at the 51st annual convention of the Pennsylvania Association of County Fairs which ended a two-day meeting Thursday night.

Mordan said about 25 per cent of the revenue paid to the state by licensed tracks will benefit the 100 fairs across the state.

Dwight B. Hower of Port Royal was elected president of the fair association.

The Central Fair Circuit, meeting in conjunction with the association, elevated Thomas Quinn of Pottsville from vice president to president, succeeding Norman L. Marshall of Trenton, N.J. The 200 delegates voted to hold next year's convention in Reading.

Celtics Wallop Zephyrs 110 To 93

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Boston Celtics showed the fans of Baltimore Thursday night why they rule the roost in the National Basketball Association.

Despite a sometimes ragged performance, with overtones of fatigue, they overwhelmed the Chicago Zephyrs 110-93 before a crowd of 7,752 in the Civic Center.

In the only other game on the NBA's Thursday night program, the last place New York Knicks of the Eastern Division rallied from 14 points behind at halftime to beat the Warriors at San Francisco.

Baltimore still has an outside chance for an NBA franchise next season, and the local fans are getting a chance to see all league teams in action this year in a test full with the fast-breaking offense employed by the Bears.

The junior varsities will meet at 6:45.

BULLDOGS SEEK TITLE

The top league games tonight are scheduled at Shippensburg (4-4) where the Greyhounds will attempt to stop Big Spring (7-0) and prevent the Bulldogs clinching first half honors, and at Camp Hill (6-1) where the Lions entertain Susquehanna (4-4) with a possible tie for first place via a victory coupled with a Big Spring upset. Other games pit Biglerville (4-4) against Newport (0-8) on the latter's floor, and East Prospect (3-5) against Boiling Springs (1-7) at Boiling Springs.

Headlining the Adams-Franklin League schedule this evening will be the Scotland-Greencastle scrap at Greencastle. Both have 6-0 records in the Western Division.

Rounding out the A-F card tonight will be the following contests: Quincy (0-6) at Littlestown (2-4), Buchanan (4-2) at Fairfield (1-5), New Oxford (4-2) at St. Thomas (3-3), and Bermudian (2-4) at Fannett-Metal (2-4).

DELONE AT HOME

Another overflow crowd is expected at McSherrystown this evening where the Delone Squires, 7-3 overall, take on powerful Lancaster Catholic in a Central Penn League game. The teams are deadlocked for second place with 2-1 records.

Other league games have York at McDevitt and Lebanon at Shamokin.

CINCINNATI NIPS BRADLEY AT HOME 52-46

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

It took 5 years, 31 minutes and 27 seconds, but Cincinnati finally found a way to beat Bradley at Peoria, Ill.

The top-ranked Bearcats simply put a cap on the Bradley basket, holding the Braves scoreless from the field over the final 3 minutes and 33 seconds Thursday night and extended their winning streak to 32 games with a 52-46 triumph.

The victory ended a five-year period of frustration for the Bearcats, who had been unable to win a basketball game in the Braves' tepee since the 1956-57 season and haven't beaten anyone where since a 70-68 overtime loss at Peoria, Jan. 10, last year.

OTHER MAJOR TILTS

In the only other major games on a light college basketball program, fourth-ranked Arizona State brought its record to 15-1 with a 59-47 Western Athletic Conference triumph over New Mexico, Wyoming whipped Arizona 84-72 in another WAC game, Georgia ripped Florida State 90-76 and Syracuse defeated Colgate 65-57.

But the big show was at Peoria, where a standing room only crowd of about 8,000 jammed Robertson Field House and watched a see-saw struggle between the two Missouri Valley Conference teams until Lavern Tart's basket gave Bradley a 44-44 tie after 31:27 had ticked off the clock.

The basket closed. Two field goals by Tom Thacker, one by George Wilson and a pair of foul shots gave Cincinnati the points it needed for the victory, an unblemished 4-0 MVC record, a 14-0 mark this season and the sweet taste of revenge.

LA TEAM FEARS TOUGH SEASON

LOS ANGELES (AP)—

Fred Haney, whose shrewd deals helped lift the Los Angeles Angels into third place in the American League baseball race last year, says he'll be happy if the team finishes in the first division in 1963.

The Angel general manager fears a leveling off and says he is not sure whether last year's race was a true test of the club's ability.

"Some of the clubs ran into unusual trouble," Haney said. "Detroit lost Al Kaline and Frank Lary, Baltimore was overconfident and Cleveland was much better than it showed."

"This year I'm afraid of Boston, too, and if Kansas City can get any kind of pitching to go with that hitting, it will be mighty tough."

"The Angels will be better, too, but I don't think we can figure on third place. I'll be happy, and I really mean it, if we get into the first division, but there is reason to hope that we can finish third again."

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Rookie third baseman Bob Bailey, 20, has signed his 1963 contract with the Pittsburgh Pirates, the club announced today.

of their enthusiasm. This is the only appearance for the Celtics, who have won the league title in five of the last six years.

KARRAS UNDER STRICT ORDERS TO KEEP QUIET

NEW YORK (AP)—Alex Karras, star tackle of the Detroit Lions, had his foot pulled out of his mouth, and a gag slapped in it, today.

Karras, who blurted out on a television show Wednesday that he had bet on games—without explaining that he meant he bet "a pack of cigarettes or a couple of cigars"—spent two long questions and answer sessions with National Football League Commissioner Pete Rozelle here Thursday.

Karras emerged glum and tight-lipped, and flew back to Detroit, where he said: "I'm under strict orders not to do any more talking."

NEW NAME POPS UP

The NFL had no comment, either. Rozelle has said he will have a statement on the current investigation of betting rumors when it is completed.

A new name popped into the picture late Thursday, with a report in the Miami (Fla.) Herald that Carroll Rosenbloom, the owner of the Baltimore Colts, has been questioned about betting on his own team, and denied it.

The Herald said Rosenbloom's lawyer, Jerome Doyle, confirmed in New York that the owner had been questioned.

BADLY SHAKEN UP

Karras came to New York to discuss his television show remarks, which stirred up the betting probe all over again. With him was teammate Wayne Walker, who got off with a 10-minute lecture from the NFL commissioner.

Rozelle could let Karras off with the stern lecture, which clearly shook up the big star, or slap him with a fine, a suspension or even throw him out of the league.

Walker, a linebacker and place kicker, got off lightly. He had admitted that he has met some persons of shady character, but insisted he never discussed football with them or made a bet.

COLLEGE PAYS COACH TRIBUTE IN AWARD YEAR

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The University of Southern California paid tribute to its football coach, John McKay, in public acknowledgment today the many honors awarded to the coach and team after the 1962 season.

Jess Hill, director of athletics, said: "We at the university graciously accept all awards made by organizations and press associations to the 1962 Trojan varsity national champions."

"To John McKay, we at the University of Southern California can only add our plaudits to many others John is a true gentleman, a fine teacher and a brilliant football technician."

The Trojan awards include the MacArthur Bowl, Associated Press award, United Press International award, Los Angeles Times award, Washington Touchdown Club award, Zupke award, Columbus, Ohio, Touchdown Club award, Helms Athletic Foundation award and Grantland Rice award.

McKay was named Coach of the Year by the Football Writers Association of America, the American Football Coaches Association, Washington Touchdown Club, Los Angeles Times Sports award, the Columbus Touchdown Club and the Southern California Broadcasters Association.

CLAY BEGINS HIS TRAINING

PITTSBURGH (AP)—

Cassius Clay has opened training for the next obstacle in his path to the world's heavyweight boxing title—a title he expects to gain within 10 months and then keep in the family for some time.

At a luncheon held to celebrate his 21st birthday Thursday the undefeated fighter from Louisville said:

"I have 10 months to break Floyd Patterson's record of being the youngest champ in history, and the only thing that is holding me back is (champion) Sonny Liston. He's afraid of me."

"I figure I'll be champ for about 10 years and then I'll let my brother (Rudolph) take over—like the Kennedys down in Washington."

Clay also explained why he predicted Charley Powell, his opponent in a 10-round fight at the Civic Arena here Jan. 24, would last five rounds.

"Ordinarily, I'd pick the second round for Powell, but that would make a great fighter like Archie Moore look bad," he said. "Also, the people have been so nice to me here that if I made it any earlier the fight would be over before everyone got in the door. So, I'll make it five for Powell."

Clay knocked out Moore in the fourth round—the round he predicted he would. It was his 17th victory in as many professional fights.

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By S. F. M. MacPHERSON

LOWER MARSH CREEK AND TOM'S CREEK

The historical and genealogical account of the Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian Church and burial ground, which began in last week's column, is continued at this time.

After the resignation of the Rev. Mr. McKnight in 1787 the pulpit of Lower Marsh Creek and Tom's Creek Churches remained vacant, except for the occasional services of "supplies" for some five years. In 1792 both congregations acted to bring this state of affairs to an end and issued a "call" to the Rev. William Paxton. This was accepted and an outstanding scholar and gentleman thus became a citizen of York (now Adams) County, Pennsylvania.

In the possession of one of the descendants of an early member of Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian Church is the original of the "call" to the Rev. Paxton. It is herewith given in full:—

CALL IS ISSUED

"The congregation of Lower Marsh Creek in conjunction with the congregation of Tom's Creek being on sufficient grounds well satisfied with the ministerial qualifications of you, Mr. William Paxton, Preacher of the Gospel, and having good hopes from our past experience of your labors that your ministrations in the gospel will be profitable to our spiritual interests do earnestly call and desire you to undertake the pastoral office of said congregations, promising you in the discharge of your duty all proper support, encouragement and obedience in the Lord; And that you may be free from worldly cares and avocations we hereby promise and oblige ourselves to pay to you in annual payments as specified in the subscription accompanying this our Call, during the time of your being and continuing the regular Pastor of this Church, and our continuing under your Pastoral care. In testimony hereof we have respectively subscribed our names this 28th day of November, 1791.

John White, Sarah Galoway, Mary Roseck, James Marshel, Donald McKinney, Anthony Bard, Edward Hughes and Joseph Fitzpatrick.

"That the within call was in all respects regularly conducted according to the rules of the Church, unanimously approved and subscribed by all present, is certified at Lower Marsh Creek Church, the 28th of November, 1791, by

"Robert Cooper, Moderator of the Meeting."

"The 15th December, 1791, — We, the Congregation of Lower Marsh Creek, do appoint our trusty Friend, Ebenezer Finley, our Commissioner to present our Call to Presbytery and to act in our stead. Signed by order and in behalf of the Congregation.

"William Finley, James McGaughy, James Ferguson."

REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIER

The Rev. James D. Paxton, grandson of the Rev. William Paxton, said of his grandfather in 1890 — "The Rev. Dr. William Paxton was some six feet, two inches in height, with very broad shoulders, and without the least tendency to corpulence. His large frame had been developed and matured by early labor on his father's farm, and by the struggles and hardships of two military campaigns (in the War of the American Revolution). The commanding power of his personal presence was felt by every one who met him. He was installed in this Church (Lower Marsh Creek) in the year 1792.

"He (the Rev. William Paxton) was received by the Presbytery of New Castle as a Candidate for the Ministry in April, 1789, just one month before the organization of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church. On April 8th, 1790 he was licensed to preach and soon after was appointed stated supply to the Churches of West Nottingham and Little Britain. In October, 1792, he was ordained and installed as pastor of the churches of Lower Marsh Creek and Tom's Creek. The circuit of his ministry was almost the whole of the western

Study Course In Clothes Repair Is Being Offered

For better looks and longer wear, reinforce, mend and repair garments before they become threadbare. That's good advice anytime.

Mend at once any garment that is damaged or snagged, but don't let garments look mended. If you're not familiar with good mending techniques, you can find help in a correspondence course from The Pennsylvania State University.

Worn trouser cuffs and knees, coat and jacket elbows, and pocket edges will look like new when correctly mended with good workmanship.

Mends described in the course may be used on fabrics of wool, cotton, man-made fibers. Correct pressing procedures and stain removal are added features of the course.

To get the complete course send $1.50 to Correspondence Courses, 202 Agricultural Education Building, University Park, Pa. Make your check or money order payable to the Pennsylvania State University. Mailing charges are prepaid.

VALUABLE NUTRIENTS

Winter salads can be attractive, nutritious, and hearty. Salads are an excellent way to get Vitamin A and ascorbic acid into the diet. Salads can also contribute other nutrients, such as protein, calcium, and iron. A few strips of left-over cooked meat, small cubes of cheese, or raisins provide these nutrients and also add interest to a salad.

Cold, crisp, colorful and delicious tasting salads are sure to appeal to all family members. Let your imagination run wild when your menu includes a tossed salad. Begin with salad greens, both light and dark. Then add other foods for texture, color, and flavor. Remember to select salad greens that are clean, dry, cold and crisp.

Try adding diced cooked potatoes, diced raw turnips, raw spinach, or raw cauliflower or broccoli florets to a salad. You can add zest to your salad with cheese, croutons, cooked fish, raw apples or peanuts. These ingredients add nutrients in addition to interest.

Fruit salads are popular for winter meals. You may combine fruit with a variety of protein foods to provide a hearty salad, or you may make individual fruit salads to accompany a main course.

SUPPLEMENT RANGE

Portable electric cooking appliances may be used in place of a range in many situations. Portable appliances are useful in vacation homes or campsites not wired with 220 volt electric service lines. They may supplement range cookery when a homemaker entertains or prepares meals for large groups.

Research in laboratories of the U.S. Department of Agriculture indicates it takes longer to prepare foods in portable appliances than on a range. However, it takes less electric energy to operate portable appliances than it does a range.

In their work, researchers compared electric saucepans, a fry pan, and a portable electric oven with range cookery. They prepared similar foods in the portable appliances and in conventional portion of what is now Adams County.

"In his early youth, during the War of the American Revolution, he (Rev. Paxton) joined the company of which his father was captain and marching with it he struggled and fought during two hard campaigns. In the Battle of Princeton, both he and his father took part. Both of them (father and son) were also at Trenton with Washington and crossed the river with the army that routed the Hessians."

The obituary of the Rev. Dr. William Paxton, as it is found in the Presbytery's Book of Obituaries, gives some rather interesting date on the life of this hard-working and good man, who ministered to the people of Lower Marsh Creek for over 50 years.

These notes will be continued next week.

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

EDITOR'S NOTE — There are several forms which citizens use to file federal income tax returns, and it is important that the proper one be used. This article, second of a series, explains the different types and how income is reported.

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—The two main forms for filling out your 1962 income tax return are 1040 and 1040A. The latter, a punch-card, is simpler.

Anyone can use 1040. People with $10,000 or more income must use it. Only under-$10,000 people can use 1040A and only if they meet certain rules.

On both forms you must figure your own tax if your income was $5,000 or more.

You do this from the tax rate schedule on page 9 of the 14-page instruction sheet sent all tax payers by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS).

HAS TAX TABLE

On both forms under-$5,000 people can find their tax, without figuring, in the tax table on page 10 of the instruction sheet.

You can not use either the tax table or 1040A if you want to itemize deductible expenses. You must use 1040. More on that later. Take 1040A. You can use it if:

1. Your under-$10,000 income was entirely in wages from which tax was withheld except for no more than $200 in dividends or interest or wages from which tax was not withheld.

2. You're willing to accept for deductible expenses the standard deduction of 10 per cent on your income—up to a maximum deduction of $1,000—without itemizing.

Anyone claiming more than that standard deduction must itemize on 1040.

10 PCT. DEDUCTION

The tax table for under-$5,000 people has built into it a deduction of 10 per cent for personal expenses. You don't have to claim it or itemize to prove you had that much deduction.

When you figure your own tax you can claim without itemizing a deduction of 10 per cent of income up to a $1,000 limit.

You can not use 1040A if you wish to file a return as head of household or surviving spouse, were self-employed, claim credit for retirement income, are delinquent in filing your return, claim exclusion for sick pay, or paid an estimated tax in 1962.

If you're one of the under-$5,000 people using 1040A and don't want to look up your tax in the table, fill out your return and send it to the IRS district collector.

He'll find your tax for you and (1) bill you for any tax still owed or (2) send you a refund if too much tax was withheld from your pay in 1962.

SEPARATE RETURNS

When a husband and wife file separate returns and one itemizes deductions, both must itemize and claim only what each can prove.

Neither, in this case, can use 1040A. Both must use 1040. (New rules on deductions for travel, entertainment and gift expenses for business purposes went into effect Jan. 1, 1963. They require far more record-keeping than in the past but do not apply to 1962 expenses.)

You are allowed to exclude from your reportable income the first $50 of dividends you receive. You can do this by leaving out the first $50 of income you report on 1040A; 1040 filers use Schedule B.

(Note: The so-called dividends you get on your savings in a savings and loan association are in fact interest and must be reported as interest, not as dividends.)

dends.)

When husband and wife jointly own stock and file a joint return, they can exclude the first $100 in dividend income from their return on 1040 or 1040A.

STOCK DIVIDENDS

When they hold stock separately and file a joint return, each can exclude no more than the first $50 of dividends each receives. This can be done on 1040 or 1040A. Example:

The husband receives $85 in dividends, the wife $35. He can exclude only $50 and she can exclude only $35.

If you receive dividends you are also allowed what is called a dividend credit in addition to excluding the first $50 of dividends from the income you report. This means besides excluding the first $50 of your dividends, you can take a credit of 4 per cent of the rest of your dividend income.

You can't do it on 1040A. There's no place for it. You must use 1040. You'll need B if you had dividends or interest or if you had income from rents, royalties, pensions, annuities, partnerships, estates, trusts, and so on.

You'll need C if you were self-employed or had income from a personally owned business or profession. You'll need D if you had income from the sale or exchange of property; and F if you had income from farming.

Those using these various schedules will, of course, also have to use that main sheet of 1040.

Next: Rates in your favor.

Methodists Develop New S.S. Material

By DORMAN CORDELL

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—The high intelligence of today's children, a subject of intensive study by the nation's educators, has not been overlooked by the churches.

Next year, the Methodist Church, second largest Protestant body in the United States

(after Southern Baptists), will become the first denomination to take wholesale action in the matter.

The Methodists will discard all lessons and teaching materials now used in their weekly church schools—some denominations call them Sunday Schools—for children from birth through the sixth grade.

They will introduce a new curriculum, acknowledging the advanced intelligence level of children and presenting broad theological themes at an earlier age. "The Gospel hasn't changed, but the depth into which the child will be introduced to the Gospel has been changed because of the changes in the abilities of children and the opportunities of children," says Dr. Edward C. Peterson, editor of children's publications for the church.

The new curriculum will be designed to encourage research by the children, Dr. Peterson said in an interview.

START IN '64

"Theology is meaningful to them only as they see its relationship to themselves," he said. "Our purpose is not to tell them, but to lead them to explore until they find answers which satisfy them."

The 3.5 million children in Methodist church schools will begin to use the new curriculum in September 1964.

"AND THEN PRINCE CHARMING"

Do you remember the undivided attention you gave to a story-teller . . . when you first heard Cinderella, Snow White, or some gallant warrior bold? It seems so long ago. And yet, that attention reveals within ourselves more than dreams; it reveals a secret longing after mysteries, after the things we do not understand, but somehow love.

Religion, in a way, is somewhat like that. Everybody is religious! But, of course, everybody doesn't call it that! Nevertheless, there is in the heart of man a secret yearning, a wish, a hope for things eternal. We express those wishes in church.

And somehow God hears our wishes and consoles and explains. That is a very important part of the Church; for it is a place of consolation and understanding, a place where wishes (prayers) are heard, where the mysteries of life gain new meaning.

Says World Communism Movement Is In Trouble

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

BERLIN (AP)—The world Communist movement is in trouble and its leaders are alarmed. The current congress of Communist leaders in East Berlin can only widen the rift between Peking and Moscow.

The alarm showed through Premier Khrushchev's major speech Wednesday. His bombast, his branding of nuclear might, his boasts of coming Soviet superiority, all seemed just to be window dressing.

What frightens the Communists? It is the prospect of polarization of authority — no Communist seats of power instead of one, with the world movement ripped apart.

CASTRO LEANING

Even Fidel Castro, the newest addition to the ranks of Red leaders, seems to be leaning in the direction of the Chinese deviation these days. He could influence many a Latin-American Communist to do likewise.

Castro, annoyed since Khrushchev suddenly yanked away his hope for nuclear weapons in October, chose the day of Khrushchev's big speech to denounce the Communist division and issue a fiery call to revolution all over Latin America. His attitude had a Chinese sound.

Castro likely is not alone in his impatience. Khrushchev's cautious policy, while it may be good for the Soviet Union, leaves many a Communist party out on a limb, looking forward to long years of serving Soviet interests without concrete rewards. The more reckless, belligerent Chinese policy likely would suit many in the world movement much better.

MIGHT BE SPLIT

But Premier Khrushchev told the Chinese Communists Wednesday that if they will not listen to his logic, they will have to go their own way. From the looks on the faces of the Red Chinese delegation, Peking might consider doing just that.

Khrushchev rejected Peking's idea of a meeting of world Red leaders on Chinese terms. If the Chinese want to talk about ending the dispute, says Khrushchev, they first must stop the name-calling in public. It has been going on for a long time now and is rising in violence.

Khrushchev accused the Chinese of wanting to spread communism by war, without regard for the widespread destruction that course might bring. There are other ways, says the Soviet leader, and there should not be resort to arms even in a revolutionary movement if the seizure of power can be achieved less riskily.

PLEADING, THREATENING

The Chinese don't agree that both sides will suffer catastrophe in nuclear war. There are three quarters of a billion Chinese; Mao Tse-tung contends plenty of them will be left after the United States and the U.S.S.R. toss bombs back and forth.

Khrushchev was both pleading and threatening.

The Soviet leader does not want to see world communism weakened by an irreparable schism. If it is possible, he undoubtedly would like to see the argument patched up. But perhaps the Red Chinese want too much.

RIFT AT TOP

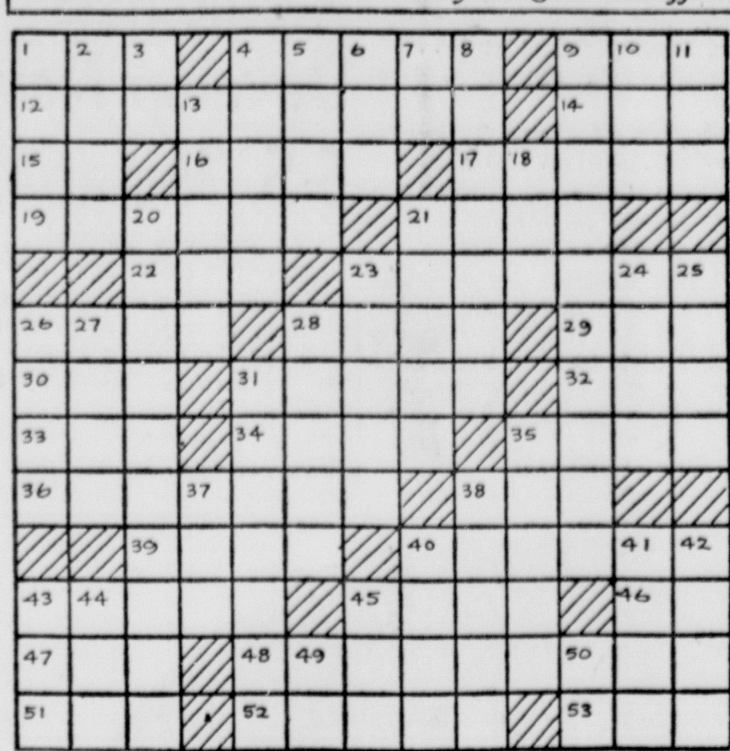

One of the things Mao seems to want is Khrushchev's head. The Chinese leader appears to have made up his mind that it is impossible for him to live with Khrushchev, that the rift will continue until an aggressive-minded Communist takes the Soviet reins.

Mao has been annoyed with Khrushchev's regime for some years. There has been irritation in Peking at the niggardliness of Soviet economic help for Red China and Soviet reluctance to sponsor Peking's membership in the nuclear club, to say nothing of Soviet aid to India and other governments the Chinese consider "reactionary."

This is primarily a rift between Khrushchev and Mao. It does not necessarily mean the Soviet-Chinese split is permanent. But while it remains so obvious, it damages the whole Communist movement. And Khrushchev seems to be at a loss to determine just what to do about it.

7 EXPLOSIONS ROCK VILLAGES

GARDEN CITY, N.Y. (AP)—A series of explosions blew a magazine plant into bits and shook three Long Island villages Thursday.

People were thrown out of bed, work at the hospital on Saturday, and will continue until they have completed at least 30 hours.

Midyear examinations will be given in the schools on Monday. All pupils must be present for the exams unless they are confined to their homes because of illness.

The Future Business Leaders Association of high school presented the play "Wedding Spells" last Friday and Saturday evenings in the high school. On Wednesday afternoon they presented it for the student body. Those participating were: Chalmers Warehime, Steve Feeser, Travis Dutterer, Bryon Barnes, Diana Fair, Bonnie Brown, Linda Lieb, Paula Brauning, Donna Eckard, Frances Mohr, Gloria Copenhaver, and Larry Glass.

A news film and a movie on March of Dimes was shown to the student body on Monday afternoon. The FBLA has assumed the responsibility of making collection for the March of Dimes.

and lights suddenly flashed on in homes in the New York City suburban area with a population of about 80,000.

Hempstead and Mineola, the Nassau County seat, were shaken in addition to Garden City.

Ninety families were evacuated from two apartment houses temporarily.

Police said the seven explosions—of ever-increasing intensity—were in fuel oil tanks in the basement of the one-story brick magazine plant.

Officials had no immediate conjecture on the cause of the blasts at the plant of the Direct Mail Advertising Reporter, a nationally circulated monthly publication, at 224 7th St., Garden City.

No one was believed to have been in the magazine plant, and no injuries were reported.

Fire followed the explosions. Firemen got the blaze under control in a short time.

LISTS LOW BIDS

The bids were $879,327 more than the total amount originally allocated for the project. The new buildings were designed to house 894 women students.

CHEVROLET...the Quality truck!

WALK AROUND IT. SEE THE DIFFERENCES.

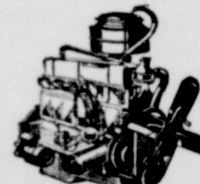

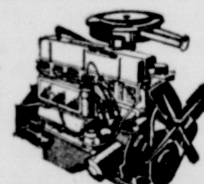

Start at the rear of this Fleetside pickup. Grab the tailgate and pull hard. No give. Two wedge latches keep it tight. Now unfasten them and let down the gate. Jump up and down on it. Does it sag? Notice how the chains are wrapped in rubber so they won't rattle or mar paint.

Now look at the lower side panels. Two walls. You might dent the inside one but it won't show through. The floor will never rust. It's select wood, not metal.

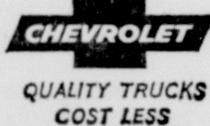

Now please sit in the cab a minute. Comfortable? It also is double walled and the roof is insulated. Let's start 'er up and look for a washboard road. Chevrolet coil-spring suspensions fight road shock better than other types, good for the truck, load and the driver. There are other things. But you can see why this is a truck that does a job without a lot of pampering. It's built right. Which is why it's usually worth more at trade-in. When would you like us to deliver it?

TO REBUILD AFTER BLAZE

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Officials of the Andy Gard Plastics Corp. in nearby Leetsdale are planning to rebuild the firm's one-story, block-long plant which was destroyed by fire.

Vincent Giardina, a co-owner, estimated the loss Thursday at $5 million to $6 million. The plant was fully insured, he said.

The company has established temporary office headquarters in the Sewickley Motor Inn and said it will accept offers to use machines at Suburban Toys, a subsidiary, and Koppers Co. until the plant is rebuilt.

Robert E. McCoy, general plant manager, said, "We started from scratch before and we'll do it again. We have some wonderful people here."

In 1958 Andy Gard employees worked without pay for a month to save the company from near financial disaster.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—For the fourth time in as many months burglars have robbed the same building. This time they took $450 from a safe.

The building is the headquarters of the Fraternal Order of Police.

TAYLOR TRIED TO GET EXTRA INCH ON GRID

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—Green Bay fullback Jimmy Taylor figures his job is to get an extra inch — and he piled up plenty in his drive for the National Football League's rushing championship.

"Football is a game of inches," the former Louisiana State star explains. "In every game you see how many first downs are made or lost by inches. If I can get an extra inch or two, I'm doing my job."

Taylor's rugged efforts for the "extra" inch have earned him the grudging respect of opponents. He weighs only 215, relatively light for a NFL fullback, yet is acknowledged as the most punishing runner in the business.

"SIT ON HIM" "When you hit him, you gotta sit on him or he'll keep moving," says all-pro linebacker Sam Huff of the New York Giants. "You can get an unnecessary roughing penalty easy when you pile on Taylor, but it's not right. You gotta pile on him a little to keep him down."

After winning the Southeastern Conference scoring championship in his junior and senior years at LSU, Taylor joined the Packers in 1958 as the club's No. 2 draft choice. However, he saw action in only two games as a rookie with a team which had a 1-10 record.

GOT STEADY JOB

Jim was given a steady job when Vince Lombardi took over the Packers as general manager and coach in 1959. He gained 452 yards in 1959, then 1,101 in '60 and 1,307 in '61 as Green Bay became a powerhouse under Lombardi's guidance.

Despite his great play, Taylor, until this season, was overshadowed by Cleveland's Jimmy Brown. This season, Taylor finished with 1,474 yards for a 5.4 average and scored 114 points to become the third NFL man to win both the rushing and scoring titles. The others were Philadelphia's Steve Van Buren in 1945 and Brown in 1958.

Taylor admits that he often attempts to "sting" tacklers in order to show he's as tough as they are. However, he also can be elusive.

CONTACT SPORT

"Football is a contact sport and you've got to make them respect you," Jim says. "You've got to punish tacklers. You've got to deal out more punishment than they deal out to you."

Linebacker Bill Harrison of the San Francisco 49ers recalls an experience indicative of Taylor's punishing power.

"Taylor saw me waiting for him and ran right at me," Harrison says. "I planted my feet to be as solid as possible, but he hit me so hard that he knocked me into the air. I landed on my back. That never happened before in my life. Then he picked me up."

2 TOUGHEST DAYS

Taylor's two toughest days were against Detroit. He netted only 47 yards as Green Bay dropped its first game of the season Thanksgiving Day, but he commanded the respect of the Lions.

Even when Taylor doesn't carry the ball, he hands out punishment.

"Taylor is one of the best blocking backs I've ever seen," says linebacker Bill George of the Chicago Bears.

With Paul Hornung, NFL scoring king three straight years, sidelined most of the season with a knee injury, Taylor carried the workload for the Packers. He's virtually a one-man gang in Lombardi's attack which blends running and passing on an equal scale.

$5 MILLION BLAZE

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Fire destroyed the Andy Gard Plastics Corp. in nearby Leetsdale Thursday, forcing some 40 employees to flee to safety. No injuries were reported.

Fire companies from a half-dozen nearby communities joined Leetsdale firemen in fighting the blaze.

Andrew Giardina, president of the company, said the plant was a total loss. He said damage would reach at least $5.5 million.

SEARCH FOR STOLEN ART

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—Troops and police began a building-to-building search Thursday of the Communist-infested Central University for five French Impressionist masterpieces stolen by gun-waving young terrorists who invaded a Caracas art museum.

Authorities believed students from the university made off with the paintings, on loan from France and insured for an estimated half a million dollars. Central University is a hotbed of Castro sympathizers.

The paintings were seized Wednesday in a daylight raid by a band of about 15 including two teen-age girls. One of the girls shot and seriously wounded a high school student who defied the raiders.

The gang shouted that they were taking the paintings to let France know that they opposed the Venezuelan government of President Romulo Betancourt. They said they would return the art works, but officials feared the paintings might be damaged.

The stolen paintings were identified as "Lilies in a Copper Vase" by Van Gogh, painted in 1886; a 1929 still life by Picasso; an 1889 still life by Gauguin; "Still Life With Pears" 1925 by Braque; and "The Bathers" 1890 by Cezanne.

British Labor Head Still Gravely Ill

LONDON (AP)—Labor party leader Hugh Gaitskell was reported Thursday to have shown some response to treatment for a mysterious virus ailment but his condition remains very grave.

A midmorning bulletin from Middlesex Hospital, where Gaitskell, 56, has been under treatment since Jan. 4, said:

"Mr. Gaitskell slept for long periods. He has shown slight response to treatment. But the renal (kidney) and abdominal complications still give rise to anxiety. His condition remains very grave."

Miller, first former AP employee to become the corporate head of the worldwide news service, was elected at the midwinter meeting of the board of directors. McKelway, 67, has been president for the last five years and he continues as a director.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—A freight train slammed into an automobile and carried it along for 60 yards before the woman driver leaped to safety Wednesday.

The woman Mrs. Ronald Schoy, 20, suffered a split lip. "It's funny about that lip," she said later. "I was so shook up I think I bit it after the wreck."

TOKYO (AP)—Seven fishermen were drowned and 22 others were feared lost in blizzard-swept waters off the northern coast of Japan, the coast guard said Thursday.

Winds up to 70 miles an hour capsized or wrecked 28 small fishing boats in the area.

On the east coast heavy snows delayed trains several hours.

The temperature in Tokyo dropped to 23 degrees, the lowest this year.

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—A vigorously honking car pulled alongside Patrolman Wayne Barnes' cruiser.

"I want to be arrested," the driver said.

"Why?" asked Barnes.

"I stole this car."

Barnes obliged and a man booked as Edward Giles, 22, of Little Rock, Ark., is in city jail. Giles reported he stole the car Friday night in Little Rock, Barnes said.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER
FUN IS WHERE YOU FIND IT.

At this time of year, almost every woman wishes for a break in routine. She needs it, too, for the renewed energy and sparkle relaxation provides.

But, if a winter holiday is not in the cards, getting a break seems a lost cause. It's not, though. A pretty good facsimile can be arranged on home grounds and squeezed into as little as an hour a day.

Just think what it is you most enjoy about a real vacation. Is it the fun and stimulation of a sport? Is it the change of scene? Perhaps both?

A bit of sleuthing would put you in touch with a feasible sport—bowling, badminton, skating. You can play ping-pong or whack away at a practice golf ball, without leaving your home. Whatever your chosen activity, it will attract enthusiastic companionship—a byproduct that will prove as refreshing to you as the sport itself.

Now for that change of scene. Where is it that you want to escape to? A sunny clime, a snow-drenched ski slope, an ocean voyage? After deciding, take a trip to your library or book store. Between the covers of novels, adventure stories and travel books, you can find all the excitement and romance that you would hope to find on the spot.

Voila, your passport! Why not make the most of it!

To lose up to 10 pounds without a struggle, send for my leaflet, "PAINLESS REDUCING." No rigid dieting, no heavy exercising, no discomfort! All advice is sane, safe, easy-to-take and effective. Address your request to Mary Sue Miller, Box 158, The Gettysburg Times, Dundee, Ill., enclosing a L.A.R.G.E., SELF-ADDRESSED, STAMPED ENVELOPE and five cents in coin!

URGES PEACE CORPS MEDALS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Peace Corps volunteers who distinguish themselves by acts of heroism would be awarded a special medal under a bill introduced by Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa.

The bill, co-sponsored by 22 other senators, was introduced Wednesday along with three other measures of Scott's.

One of these, in which Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., joined with Scott, would exempt from the social security program those persons whose religious beliefs it offends.

The measure is intended primarily to help the Amish.

Scott's other two bills call for an increase to $2,400 a year the amount social security recipients may earn in outside employment; and a $900 exemption parents for each child they are putting through college. The latter measure provides for parents with income of $10,000 a year or less.

The New York State Thruway system comprises about 3,000 miles of single lane pavement — enough for a road from New York City to San Francisco.

S.S. UNCOVERS GUARD FRAUD

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—The U. S. Secret Service says a two-year investigation into pay records of the 109th Infantry, Pennsylvania National Guard, resulted in the fraud indictments Wednesday of three reservists.

The Secret Service said, after the indictments were handed up by a federal grand jury, that it launched its investigation upon request of 28th Division headquarters at Indiantown Gap.

Indicted were Gerald E. Shanley Jr., an assistant vice president of the First National Bank of Stroudsburg, and former commander of Co. A, 1st Battle Group, 109th Infantry; Robert E. Schoonover, East Stroudsburg, Co. A first sergeant; and M-Sgt. Vincent Marek Jr., Tannersville, a Co. A platoon sergeant.

ROBBED OF JEWELS

BLUE BELL, Pa. (AP)—Jay Cooke, Fairmount Park commissioner and long time Republican leader, estimated Thursday jewelry stolen from his wife at Harrisburg Monday night was worth less than $6,000. Cooke said he and his wife discovered the theft when they returned to their home from a party connected with the inauguration of Gov. Scranton.

2 MEN DIE IN BURNING CARS

POTTSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Two men were killed Wednesday night when their trucks collided head-on and the gasoline tanks exploded.

The victims, Arthur Bebelheimer, 18, of Andreas, Carbon County, and William Haller, 51, of Denver, Lancaster County, were trapped in the flaming wreckage. Authorities said the heat was so intense the trucks were welded together at the point of impact.

The accident occurred on Route 895 about six miles north of Harrisburg.

State trooper Chester Brozowski of the Schuylkill Haven barracks said Bebelheimer was driving his empty truck north when he sideswiped an auto driven by Hamilton Handling, 40, of Schuylkill Haven, going south. Brozowski said Bebelheimer's truck then smashed head on into Haller's truck, which was loaded with bricks.

Handling was treated at the Pottsville Hospital for lacerations of the face and body, then released.

The Washington Monument was completed in 1884.

Let's Look At The Record

By JIM DAN HILL, Ph.D.
President, Wisconsin State College, Wisconsin

NOW that the Cuban prisoners from the Bay of Pigs fiasco are with their families and have told their many stories, most of the jigsaw puzzle pieces are falling into place for a complete picture. One large and important piece is still missing. We will return to it shortly.

First, it should be recalled that landings by exiled freedom fighters have an ancient and honorable tradition in Latin American history. The technique and formula began in the days when the viceroys of Spain ruled in the name of the Spanish kings.

Francisco Miranda, Simon Bolivar and San Martin, the three greatest names in Latin American history, conducted their crusades by organizing small, armed expeditions in friendly countries.

As "filibusterers," or soldiers of fortune, they landed near their objective, raised the "grito de libertad" — the cry of freedom. It was always accompanied by "vivas" for the "Liberator," or liberator. He was cast in the role of the knight in shining armor, returned to his homeland and dedicated to a program of freedom for his downtrodden fellow citizens.

CAME INDEPENDENCE from Spain and the formula continued. The hated viceroys and Spanish captains general were gone, but native born and power hungry military chieftains moved into their vacated palaces. They often ruled with an even more cruel, despotic and grinding power.

No matter what the constitution said, elections were irregular under such native grown despots. When held, the ballots were meaningless.

How to get rid of them? Simple. Return to the historic formula for freedom — a liberator out of exile, in command of a small, heroic band.

It became the accepted procedure for starting and conducting a presidential election with bullets instead of ballots. Often the numbers killed and wounded were less than in some stormy and early U.S. elections in which both sides became unduly exuberant in trying to stuff the ballot boxes.

ONE need only think back five years to the twilight of ex-President Fulgencio Batista, of Cuba, to recall a graphic re-enactment of the well known Latin American formula for an election with bullets instead of ballots.

Castro, himself, returned to Cuba, out of exile and at the head of a small band of armed filibusterers, with himself so well cast in the role of a liberator that he made suckers of normally clever and perceptive American war correspondents — including a world roving ace of the New York Times.

LET US NOW return to the Bay of Pigs for an inventory of what they had and did not have.

The brigade of freedom fighters numbered about 1,500 officers and men. They were better armed than any filibusterers in history. They arrived offshore on four ships, escorted by two armed patrol boats. A veritable armada, as such landings go.

An unknown number (probably six B-26s, two P-51s and one C-46) of World War II vintage provided rather effective air cover in the confused but effective landings.

ACCOUNTS of returnees assure us the invasion was a near success. A Major Duque, commanding 1,000 of Castro's defenders, immediately wanted to surrender.

According to the historic Latin American, bullet election rules, there stood a thousand votes and a hundred thousand bullets for a new president — a liberator. But there was no name for whom they could tell him to "viva."

There is also evidence that some Castro commanders further inland dragged their feet on execution of defense plans until it was quite obvious the proposition was going to be a real battle instead of an election by vivas, backed by bullets.

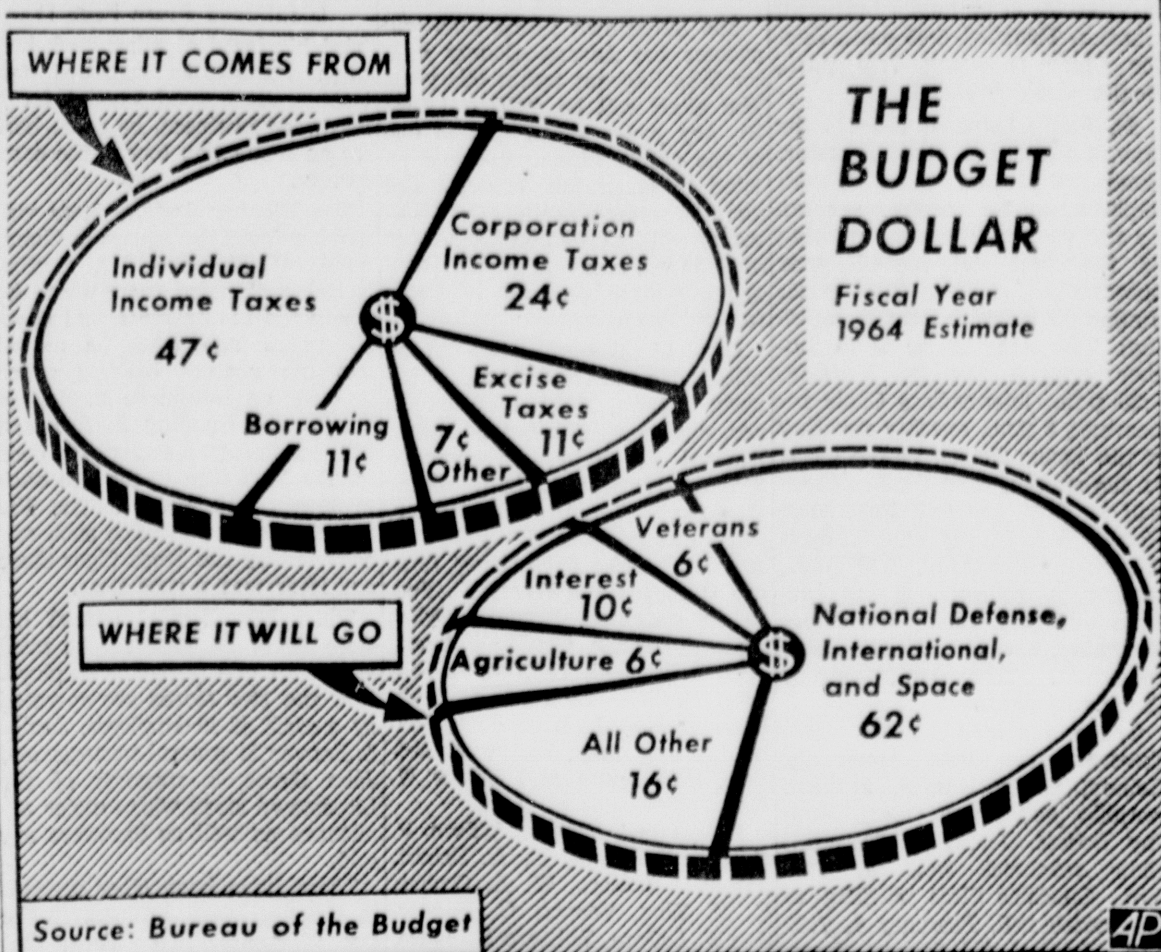

WE ARE NOW back to the large missing piece in the jigsaw puzzle picture of the Bay of Pigs. Where was the liberator? Who was the liberator? Did one ever exist? Why was not one forthcoming?

Can it be that the Washington bureaucrats (State Department, Pentagon, or CIA) who sympathetically watched this thing shape up, were so stupid and so unknowledgeable of Latin American history, that they thought an election could be won without a conspicuously visible candidate?

Had they never heard the old ward heeler's election year axiom that you can't beat anybody with nobody? It is just as true in a Latin American election with bullets as it is in a North American election with ballots.

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—The young man was in a quandary.

"I am tired of being a bachelor and want to settle down," he told me. "But I'm in love with two girls."

"They have the same physical measurements, uh, 37-23-35, I think. Both have the same amount of money—none. Each has a steady job that holds promise of advancement."

"But one is beautiful. Everyone comes up and wants to meet her when I take her out. She is wonderful to look at."

"The other one is homely. Nobody bothers us when I'm with her. But she is so much fun to listen to!"

PICK HOMELY GIRL

"Tell me, which one should I marry?"

Well, the next morning I put the question to five married male philosophers gathered around the office water cooler. The vote might surprise the average woman. It came out four-to-one in favor of recommending that the young man wed the homely girl.

"A beautiful dame is always holding the mirror up to herself," said the first. "A husband to her is only landscaping. He just serves as backdrop while she holds the center of the stage."

Said the second man: "It boils down to a matter of expense. Give me a homely girl every time. You'd think it would cost more to keep up a homely girl, because she needs so much improvement. Actually, it works the other way. It's the beautiful women who are never satisfied with how they look. They'll keep any man broke spending his money so they'll look even better—not to him but to other women."

ENJOYS GOOD LAUGH

"A homely woman is better because she doesn't mind giving a real belly laugh if something strikes her as funny, and a fellow likes a gal who can let go with a real belly laugh and enjoy herself," said the third man.

"That's true," broke in the fourth man. "But that's only part of it. There are other arguments. 'If you marry a beautiful woman, you wind up jealous of her."

Area Marketing Agent

Meats, dairy products and certain processed fruits and vegetables offer economy too the cost-conscious foodshopper this weekend, reveals Tom Piper, Penn State extension marketing agent.

The longshoremen's strike continues to have a serious effect on imports of bananas, pineapples, and other tropical produce. Citrus and many fresh vegetables remain in short supply but some improvement will be noted.

This year, as we move into the winter months, supplies of beef, pork and lamb are expected to increase. Prices will change reflecting the relative supply and demand situation for each kind of meat. Best buys this week will be limited primarily to featured items which may vary from one market to another. Fryers, beef roasts and steaks, pork chops, Boston butt roasts plus selected cuts of lamb are feature candidates.

INCREASED MARKETING

Looking ahead to the late winter and early spring months, increased marketings of beef, pork, lamb and poultry are expected. The 1962 fall pig crop was 2-3 per cent larger than a year ago, and thus will furnish more pork

But if you marry a homely woman, she always worries about where your eye is wandering. "Also, a beautiful woman never gets more beautiful, but marriage makes a homely woman prettier every year."

Indignantly the fifth man broke in: "I must disagree with every crass word you fellows have uttered. Why, I married the most beautiful girl in the world, and I'd like to say—"

"How long you been married, son?" interrupted the first man. "Three months, sir."

NEW YORK (AP) — Five colleges and universities related to the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) which still are not racially integrated have been urged to "take immediate steps to open their doors to all qualified students without regard to race."

The action was taken by the Negro convention of the denomination at a meeting here.

NEW NIKE-X WOULD GIVE U.S. PUNCH

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

AP Military Affairs Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The new Nike-X antimissile system, mentioned tersely in President Kennedy's budget message, would give the United States a one-two punch to hurl at oncoming enemy hydrogen warheads.

The Nike-Zeus, under development for more than six years, is designed to intercept hostile missile warheads beyond the atmosphere. The very much faster Nike-X would destroy such warheads penetrating inside the atmosphere, relatively close to the ground.

Since the Nike-X still is in the drawing board stage, it appears likely this new orientation in Pentagon thinking on missile defense will delay any combat-ready system until the latter part of this decade, if not longer.

$325 MILLION

Kennedy asked Congress for $325 million to push development of the Nike-Zeus, which already has intercepted three target warheads in tests over the Pacific, and to start work on the advanced system.

The President also requested $100 million for other unspecified antimissile research projects related to the Zeus.

The message provided no amplification, but defense officials said the mysterious sounding Nike-X would complement the Zeus which they said has been radically redesigned and greatly improved in many respects.

Nike-X was described by those officials as a later generation of the Nike-Zeus, with vastly improved radar, a swifter missile and better electronic components. They said it would substantially increase the effectiveness of the Zeus system.

If Wide-Track is as hot as Pontiac says, why don't they put it in their Tempest?

They just did.

We can take a hint. When people are as happy with something as Pontiac owners are with Wide-Track, we're willing—may, eager—to let everybody else in on it. That's why Tempest has a Wide-Track of its own this year. It's why you get to choose between a lively 4 and a 326-cu. in. V-8, too. We aim to please—and if we do say so, we're pretty accurate. *Optional at extra cost.

Now there are two kinds of Wide-Track cars . . . Pontiac and Tempest

PARISH WOMEN SET DATE FOR ANNUAL PARTY

Thursday, March 21, was chosen as the date for the annual card party at the meeting of the St. Aloysius Parish Council of Catholic Women, held on Wednesday evening in the parish recreation room, with the president, Mrs. Z. W. Sanders, in charge. All members will participate in this annual fund raising event, in the securing of prizes, the preparation and serving of food, etc.

St. Aloysius Parish Council will be the hostess unit for the next quarterly open meeting of the Conewago Deaneary Council of Catholic Women, to be held on Sunday, February 3. An illustrated talk on the story of Our Lady of Fatima will be featured and the exchange students in the communities of the deaneary area will be invited to attend. The parish hostess committee for the day will include Mrs. Z. W. Sanders, Mrs. Bernard M. Selby, Mrs. Donald L. Bedford, Mrs. Thomas G. French, Mrs. Francis Prato, Miss A. Marie Budde. Members volunteered to provide cake and cookies for refreshments.

SATURDAY DEVOTIONS

In keeping with the deaneary recommendation for parish councils to adopt the devotion of the five first Saturdays, in honor of Our Lady of Fatima, with the prayer intentions for the conversion of Russia, it was voted to begin the devotions in the local parish on the first Saturday of February, and continue through the first Saturday of June. All the women of the parish are invited to join in the devotion. Mass will be said on these first Saturdays at 8:30 a.m. in the church.

The meeting opened Wednesday with salute to the cross, salute to the flag, and the prayer of Our Lady of Good Counsel, lead by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. John E. Metz. Reports were heard from Mrs. Bernard Khuns, secretary and Mrs. Paul E. Altoff, acting treasurer. Individuals acknowledgments were received by those members who sent Sunshine Box gifts to member Mrs.

John Busbey, during the holidays. The message of the newly elected National President, Mrs. Catherine A. McCarthy, reiterated the messages of the speakers at the national convention, especially the need for personal responsibility.

TO SERVE DINNER

The message was read by Mrs. Bernard M. Selby, vice president. A thank you note was read from the Keystone Cabinet Company for the serving of their annual Christmas banquet to employees and guests. It was decided to serve the mink stole dinner for the Littlestown Junior Chamber of Commerce on Saturday, February 23, if the Jaycees choose to have the council prepare and serve the meal. Those women who assisted with previous dinners will be contacted. It was announced that Mrs. Emma Weaver will observe her 96th birthday on February 7, and members were asked to remember her with greeting cards, as well as the shut-ins.

A contribution of $5 was voted to the March of Dimes. The guest package contributed by Mrs. Bernard Khuns, was received by Mrs. Stewart N. Long, Mrs. Thomas G. French, chairman of libraries and literature, had books and magazines available for those interested. Mrs. French will head the committee for the February 20 meeting when Catholic Press Month will be observed. Assisting her will be Mrs. Joseph Rang, Mrs. Albert Ozminski, Mrs. Richard Schuchart, Mrs. Diamon Dehoff, Mrs. Earl Weaver, Mrs. Raymond Clingan, Mrs. Donald Staub and Miss Aida Cool.

The program on Wednesday was a detailed resume of the proceedings at the national convention of the National Council of Catholic Women in Detroit, by Mrs. Paul E. Altoff, president of the Conewago Deaneary, who represented both the parish and the deaneary at the convention. A series of posters, featuring pictures of places and personalities at the convention, were used to illustrate the talk. Literature and souvenirs from the convention were on display. Refreshments were served by the evening's committee, headed by Mrs. Regina Arter, parish chairman of Cooperation with Catholic Charities.

ZERFING'S TO

tried his hand at other work but, when a salesman suggested Gettysburg as a good location for a hardware business, he came here for an inspection tour of the community.

The Blocher Jewelry Store was moving from the square to Chambersburg St. and Mr. Zerfing leased that store room where he conducted his business until about six years ago when he moved into the present building which he owns on Baltimore St. He had bought the building in 1941 and has in his possession old deeds for the land tracing the title back to James and Mary Gettys. The present Zerfing location once was occupied by the Stock Cigar Store and later was a shoe store.

When Mr. Zerfing opened his store here, he handled the business on one part-time employee. Now the two stores are operated by a staff of 15 employees. James S. Reaver is general manager and John Guise is manager of the Littlestown store where major appliances as well as hardware are sold.

There have been other changes in the hardware business in the last 35 years. Some items that were staples then have almost disappeared from the shelves and new products have taken their places. An example is the brisk business Zerfing's stores now do in houseware items, many of which were not to be found in hardware stores of three or four decades ago. Electrical tools are another new development in the hardware business while many hand tools are in less demand.

A display advertisement in today's edition of The Gettysburg Times gives details on Saturday's sale.

MIRACLE OF ELECTRONICS IS UNVEILED

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Still another electronic miracle was unveiled this week: the transcontinental, live television press conference.

It was not the President of the United States reporting on a new crisis. It was not U.N. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson explaining a national stance.

It was Tony Curtis, the movie star, plugging his forthcoming film, "Forty Pounds of Trouble."

Motion picture writers and editors gathered in studios of nine cities on Wednesday for a two-way closed circuit telecast with Hollywood. (Actually, the picture came from Hollywood, but the questions came in by long distance telephone.)

LEADING LADY

Curtis, looking sharp and agreeable, arrived on camera and after greeting the unseen interviewers, made the traditional prepress conference announcements — talking up the movie. He introduced his leading lady, Suzanne Pleshette.

"Say good morning to your mother and dad, they are looking at you in New York," he instructed.

"Good morning, mother and dad," said Suzanne, looking wildly about the set.

Soon Curtis was ready to accept questions from the interviewers.

"How are you?" was the first question, from Boston. ("Fine.") "How does it feel to perform with a child actress?"

"If you can make a film with Gary Grant and survive," replied Curtis, merrily, "you can work with anybody, even children and dogs."

And so this trail-blazing experiment rambled on, city to city, probing question after probing question. It was all pretty impressive, particularly since Curtis' public relations men had furnished a list of what it took to mount this closed-circuit milestone: $11 million worth of electronic equipment; 27,400 miles of wire; 50 TV sets; 235 people, and three weeks of preparation.

FARGO, N.D. (AP) — An Air National Guardsman was killed Thursday when he was sucked into the air intake of a jet fighter plane.

M. Sgt. Gordon Wilde, 43, Fargo, apparently got too close to one of the air intakes, oval shaped and about two feet high, while checking the engine of the F89.

CONGO PREMIER WORRIES ABOUT CONGO, KASAI

By RICHARD K. O'MALLEY

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Two Congolese soldiers stepped from a sentry hut, carefully checked papers and then waved the car on.

On a little knoll stood a low, attractive house surrounded by lawn and with a garden at the rear. A soldier with a rifle and bayonet slowly patrolled the road. Papers were checked again and the soldier stepped back.

At a knock on the door, a rich, sure voice called, "Come in."

Inside, in a broad, modern living room sat Cyrille Adoula, 47, former clerk, former secretary and now premier of the central Congo government.

Adoula is a burly man, with a brow that crinkles deeply when he is driving a point home. Already he has learned much of how to give the diplomatic answer, the soft turn to a sharp query, but his manner is forthright and his trip from a mud hut behind a Leopoldville garage to the premier's chair has not been easy.

AFFABLE MAN
He is affable, has a certain charm and is hospitable and courteous. None of these qualities has reached the masses of the people he is striving to govern. To them he is a man in an office, a name they don't mention in the day-to-day conduct of affairs.

He has one of the toughest jobs in the business of trying to run a government.

For months, he has been pain-

Driverless Truck Kills Man Trying To Escape It

COATESVILLE, Pa. (AP) — A driverless tractor-trailer truck killed today a man who tried desperately to run out of its way.

The truck had jackknifed on ice-coated pavement as its driver attempted to avoid a minor wreck and eight persons clustered about the scene. The truck continued on after hitting the man, smashed through a bridge railing and hung for hours 65 feet over Brandywine Creek.

The dead man, George Seibert, 23, Lancaster, was the driver of a small truck involved in the first accident, about 11:30 p.m. Thursday night. Another small truck had collided with him after he stopped on the bridge over the U. S. 30 bypass near here.

DRIVER JUMPED

The tractor-trailer, driven by Lawrence J. Crimlis, 46, of Philadelphia, came on the scene moments after the first wreck. Crimlis applied his brakes, found the truck was skidding, saw the eastbound lane was free of traffic, headed his rig in that direction and jumped, said state policeman James Boyle.

As Crimlis landed on the pavement, he saw in the headlights a man running desperately as the driverless truck bore down on him. After a lengthy search Seibert's body was found 65 feet under the bridge, in Brandywine Creek. The truck went over the bridge, but continued to dangle by its coupling with the tractor, which remained on the roadway.

PAVEMENT SLICK
Seibert, a recent bridegroom, was employed by Thomas G. Hewes, Kinzer, Pa., a produce dealer. Hewes, Seibert and Kenneth A. Hershey, 19, of Kinzer had driven three panel trucks to Pennsauken, N.J., to pick up produce and were enroute to Lancaster.

Seibert, in the lead truck, decided the pavement was too slick to go over the Brandywine Creek bridge and stopped. Hewes also stopped. Then, said Boyle, Hershey, in the third truck, tried to stop but skidded into the others. All together, there were eight persons in the three trucks.

As they stood by the side of the road, Crimlis' rig approached. Seven pressed backwards, but Seibert tried to run across the road.

SEN. HAWBAKER DISAGREES ON MILK REPORT

HARRISBURG (AP) — A legislative report criticizing Pennsylvania's milk control law was making two Republican lawmakers unhappy today.

Sen. Elmer D. Hawbaker, R-Franklin, who served as vice chairman of the joint state government commission that issued the report, said Thursday he had refused to sign it. He added that he didn't agree with a word of it.

Rep. William R. Korn, R-Somerset, called release of the report a "breach of protocol."

"The task force did not consult about this report and it is not an official report of the task," Korn charged.

QUESTION AUTHORITY

He referred to a legislative task force of the commission assigned to study administration of the state's milk control law. Korn was a member of the task force.

The report was issued Wednesday over the signature of former Rep. Harris G. Breth, who was chairman of the commission.

The report said minimum price regulation by the milk control commission had "resulted in high consumer prices for fluid milk, low fluid milk consumption and the stimulation of uneconomic milk production."

And, a question arose over Breth's authority to issue the report. The Clearfield County Democrat was defeated in a bid for re-election last Nov. 6. His term expired Dec. 1.

back-to-work calls and have remained off the job since the Dec. 6 explosion at U. S. Steel Corp.'s Robena No. 3 mine, demanding assurances that it could not happen again.

A final report is still pending on the results of a public hearing into the blast by the State Department of Mines. The hearing ended Tuesday.

AD-GIRL ACTS IN OWN PLAYS

WINNIPEG (AP) — Rosemary De Graff, when she isn't churning out advertising copy for a department store, writes, acts in and directs her own plays.

She became her own director recently when the new venture theater here staged her one-act comedy "Birthdays Blues."

Miss De Graff, who says she has been doing creative things since she was 10, tried to earn her living by writing during one year, but found the going rather rough. She now confines her writing to two or three evenings a week.

She currently is working on a novel and a three-act play, neither of which she is prepared to discuss because "talking about them takes the bloom off when I sit down to write."

Among her efforts have been radio plays for the CBC's Prairie Playhouse and Halifax Theater, as well as a number of poems and short stories.

Perhaps the highlight of her young career was in 1955 when one of her stories won the annual prize of the Winnipeg branch of The Canadian Authors Association.

Her stories, which with her other writing she most definitely does not consider a hobby, generally are character studies of ordinary people and events she either has experienced or heard of.

Miss De Graff, who finds acting the best way to find out what the actors and audience require in a well-rounded play, currently is the only writer in The Venture Theater Project, but she is looking beyond that.

RED DELEGATE IS JEERED AT COMMY MEET

By TOM OCHILTREE

BERLIN (AP)—Jeering, shouting Communists halted a speech by Red Chinese delegate Wu Hsi-chuan at the East German party congress today after Wu made a veiled attack on Soviet Premier Khrushchev's coexistence policies. Wu was shouted down after 30 minutes.

Khrushchev was not present to hear Wu assail "revisionists of the Tito clique"—the Chinese Communist way of criticizing Soviet leadership.

Snubbing the Red Chinese, Khrushchev spent the morning at an East Berlin television factory. SHOUT, WHISTLE

Throughout Wu's speech the 2,500 delegates and guests from 70 Communist parties stamped their feet, shouted and whistled to show their disapproval.

This performance clearly underlined the control Khrushchev has exerted over the European Communist parties in support of his line that communism must be spread by means short of all-out war.

It is Khrushchev's caution in a world commanded by nuclear weapons which has brought down scorn on his head from the Chinese Reds, who maintain that in Cuba he bowed to an American paper tiger.

REBUKES CHINESE

Paul Verner, first secretary of the East Berlin Communist party, and chairman at today's session, rebuked the frozen-faced Chinese delegate for assailing fraternal Communist parties and guest delegates.

Such attacks, Verner said, are incompatible with relations which should exist between Marxist-Leninist parties.

He told Wu to stop such tactics. Several times Wu was stopped by shouts of "Pfui"—a favorite German jeer.

But he struggled on until the end of half an hour, then he stopped, with his words hardly heard. Only a few delegates clapped as he finished.

HEARD ATTACKS

Since the opening of the party congress on Tuesday, Wu has had to listen to marathon speeches highlighted by attacks on his country's attitude on how communism should be spread.

The session his morning was his first opportunity to defend Mao Tse-tung and his policies. Wu went through the motions of supporting the general line of Communist policy on Germany and Berlin. He said his government supports the demand for conclusion of a German peace treaty and a solution of the West Berlin problem.

Ice Threatens To Close Power Plant

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (AP)—Massive mounds of ice covered most of the Niagara River today as ice-breakers struggled to keep water flowing to power generators in this major hydroelectric-power producing area.

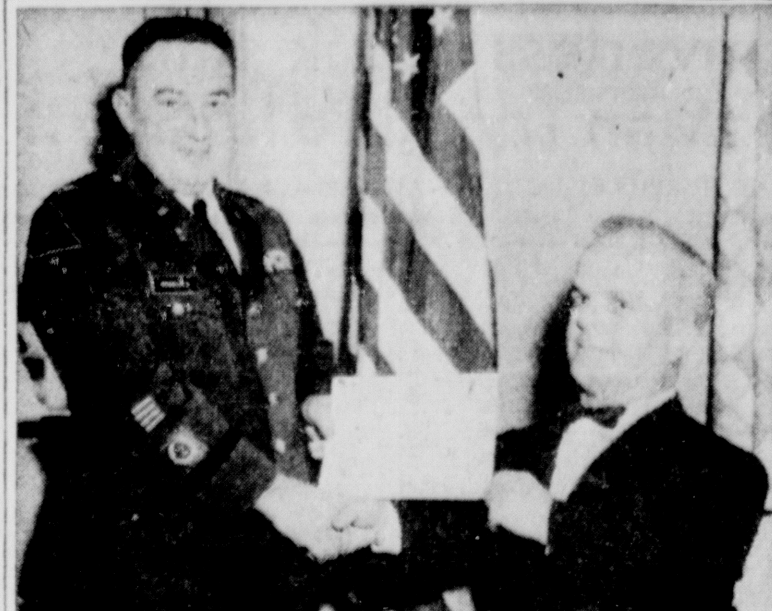

The 13-mile length of the lower Niagara River was jammed with ice Thursday night from the foot of Niagara Falls to Lake Ontario. Some buildups towered 30 feet above water level.

He read a letter of greeting from the Red Chinese party's Central Committee and party to the congress. They wished East Germany "even greater successes in building socialism."

Then he turned to the Yugoslavs, branded as Red heretics in Stalin's time but now accepted back into the fold by the Soviets. This is the first congress of the European Red bloc which the Yugoslavs have attended as full participants since the Stalin-Tito break in 1948.

Wu described the Yugoslavs as revisionists, an epithet meaning those who revise the gospel of Marx and Lenin to suit their own purposes. By implication, his charge was really directed at Khrushchev and his followers.

LABOR LEADER SERIOUSLY ILL

LONDON (AP)—Some improvement in the condition of British Labor party leader Hugh Gaitskill was reported today after treatment with an artificial kidney.

However, the bulletin said Gaitskill's heart was showing signs of weakness and he was still "dangerously ill."

A medical bulletin this morning from Middlesex Hospital said:

"Mr. Gaitskill was treated with an artificial kidney during the night. This treatment has led to some improvement but the full effect cannot be assessed yet."

"His heart is now showing signs of weakness and he is still dangerously ill."

The 56-year-old leader of Britain's chief opposition party has been in the hospital since Jan. 4 with a mysterious virus infection of the membranes around the lungs and heart. The virus failed to respond to treatment with a variety of antibiotics and spread to the kidneys and intestines.

NINE DOCTORS

The artificial kidney was used because Gaitskill's own organs were unable to carry out their normal function of eliminating toxic matter from the blood stream.

Another doctor was added during the night to the team treating Gaitskill, making a total of nine. Including biochemists, laboratory technicians, nurses and doctors, the staff fighting to save his life now numbers more than 40.

Gaitskill was wheeled into the operating room shortly after midnight and the artificial kidney was installed. It was removed at 8:30 a.m. and he was returned to his room.

Claims Radar Has Saved Many Lives

HARRISBURG (AP)—State Sen. Fred B. Rooney, D-Northampton, contends the 1961 radar law has saved lives on Pennsylvania highways.

But he added in a statement Thursday:

"Despite all the evidence supporting the continued use of radar, there are those who would seek to turn the clock back, to rip out this vital segment of our accident prevention effort."

A proposal for repeal of radar for clocking highway speeders was made recently by Sen. George N. Wade, R-Cumberland, new chairman of the Highways Committee.

NEW JEWISH STATISTICS

NEW YORK (AP)—Jewish population in the United States is estimated at 5,510,000 at the close of 1961, 20,000 less than the previous year, by the American Jewish Yearbook. World Jewish population is put at 12,500,000, about 3.7 million in Europe, 2 million in Asia and 1,936,000 in Israel. More than 40 per cent of American Jews live in the New York metropolitan area, the report said.

QUIT JOBS TO COMPLY WITH "WILL OF GOD"

IOLA, Kan. (AP)—A quiet invasion of this town of 7,300 in south-east Kansas has been started by members of a sect who say it's "the will of the Lord."

Why are they giving up jobs and homes elsewhere?

"The Lord has spoken," said Jim Hoss, father of four, who is quitting a draftsman's job in Hutchinson, Kan. "That's where the Lord wants me, to train me for what he wants me to do. I'm not particularly interested in a job."

About 30 members of the Bethel Baptist Church in Hutchinson are moving to Iola, 160 miles away. A truck backed up to the Madison Avenue Church in Iola Thursday night and household goods of Hutchinson families were unloaded.

Other families from Oklahoma, Missouri and Illinois are expected. About 75 persons, mostly children, gathered in the church.

After the meeting, newsmen questioned members of the group about the migration.

"We don't want publicity," one man said. Others said, "I'm not qualified to answer." "We are committed to the Lord." "The Lord wants it to be known He'll direct us."

The church pastor, known as Brother Don Kindhart, disappeared through a rear door when reporters entered.

Then the families dispersed, with the newcomers going home with members of the Iola congregation.

The Madison Avenue Church congregation split away from the First Baptist Church of Iola some time ago.

Reaction among Iola citizens to the new arrivals is that of surprise.

Mayor D. A. McDonald Jr. said, "I hope they can find work. Allen County has one of the heaviest real rolls in the state."

Driver Fined $300 For Manslaughter

HARRISBURG (AP)—Marvin Ernest Payne of Yeading was fined $300 following his conviction Thursday on charges of involuntary manslaughter in a highway death near Harrisburg.

Payne was driver of a truck that collided with a car on Oct. 26, 1960, resulting in the death of William Bretz of Halifax R.D. The victim's wife and seven-week-old child were passengers in the car.

Judge G. Thomas Miller of Dauphin County Criminal Court sentenced Payne to 23 months in prison but immediately placed the defendant on parole.

Final Day Of R.R. Hearings

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Witnesses were called today for the final round of regional hearings held by the Interstate Commerce Commission on the proposed merger of the Pennsylvania and New York Central railroads.

Further hearings will be held in New York and Newark, N. J. On Thursday Philip G. Kraemer, traffic manager for the Delaware River Port Authority, urged examiners to disallow the merger, saying it would harm Philadelphia.

Kraemer said, "From the point of view of the port of Philadelphia we do not wish to have railroads strengthened by giving our port less service."

HARRISBURG (AP)—Construction of a link of the Keystone Shortway in Columbia County was included among the nine projects for which the State Highways Department called for bids Thursday.

The bids must be submitted before Feb. 21. The projects include: Columbia—Keystone Shortway, (1-80), Scott, North Centre and South Centre Twp., between Bloomsburg and Lime Ridge, 5.27 miles, two 24-foot lanes of concrete pavement separated by a 60-foot earth median, and seven bridges. Interstate.

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Ralph Alexander Liddle, 66, noted petroleum geologist and author, died Wednesday after a brief illness.

NEWSMEN ARE WARNED BY AP RETIRING CHIEF

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — News-men have been warned by Benjamin M. McKelway, outgoing president of The Associated Press, not to take their profession for granted.

The Washington Star editor, speaking at a banquet ending the quarterly meeting of the AP Board of Directors Thursday night, said:

"The danger which faces the press today is that it might take for granted certain blessed freedoms which were known only as aspirations when their predecessors fought for them."

SUCCEEDED BY MILLER

Earlier Thursday, McKelway resigned after five years as AP president. He was succeeded by Paul Miller of Rochester, N.Y., president of the Gannett Newspapers. McKelway will remain on the board.

Elected first vice president to succeed Miller was Bernard H. Ridder Jr., publisher of the St. Paul (Minn.) Dispatch and Pioneer-Press.

McKelway said The Associated Press, world's largest news gathering organization, was the product of a revolution for mutual control of the news.

COULD WITHER, DIE

"The profession," he said, "must remain free from the control of a few private individuals and of the government."

"The spirit of The Associated Press," he said, "could wither on the vine and die if it is taken for granted."

Miller, 56, was first elected to the AP Board of Directors in 1950. He is the first former employee of the AP to hold its top corporate office at the AP's fourth president since it reorganized in 1900.

Miller began his newspaper career at 18 as a reporter in his native Oklahoma.

WAS PHILA. CHIEF

After joining The Associated Press at Columbus, Ohio, in 1932, he rose rapidly, serving as chief of bureau in Salt Lake City, Harrisburg, Pa., and Philadelphia before joining the executive staff in New York. In 1942 he became chief of the Washington bureau.

Miller also was assistant general manager when he resigned in 1947 to join the executive staff of the Gannett Newspapers. Ten years later, became president of the 17-newspaper group, which operates three radio and two television stations, and has papers in New York, Connecticut, New Jersey and Illinois.

He also is editor and publisher of the Rochester Times-Union and publisher of the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

REFUGEES ESCAPE

EISENSTADT, Austria (AP) — Three Hungarian refugees crossed into Austria with help from the current cold wave. They told police the mine-studded no man's land along the border was covered with ice and the cold also had rendered the electricity charged wires along the frontier ineffective.
